* In 2006, the NFL implemented a "flexible scheduling" procedure for Sunday Night Football. Flexible scheduling ensured quality matchups on Sunday night in all weeks and gave surprise teams a chance to play their way onto primetime. For the 2024 season, flexible scheduling will be expanded to include Monday Night Football, as well as Thursday Night Football on a trial basis. Please note that the NFL is continuously reviewing its scheduling procedures to ensure exciting and meaningful games are available for viewing by the largest number of fans and so further changes to flexible scheduling could be implemented in the future.

* Flexible scheduling is in effect during the following windows (the "Flex Scheduling Windows"):

- ▶ Sunday afternoon games may also be moved between 1:00 p.m. and 4:05 p.m. or 4:25 p.m. ET.
- ▶ For Sunday Night Football, it may be used up to twice between Weeks 5-10, and at the NFL's discretion during Weeks 11-17.
- ▶ For Monday Night Football, it may be used at the NFL's discretion in Weeks 12-17.
- ▶ For Thursday Night Football, it may be used up to twice between Weeks 13-17.

* During the Flex Scheduling Windows, the games initially scheduled for Sunday Night Football (on NBC), Monday Night Football (ESPN or ABC), and Thursday Night Football (Amazon Prime Video) are tentatively scheduled and subject to change. Only Sunday afternoon games (or those listed as TBD) are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, Monday night, or Thursday night, in which case the initially scheduled Sunday, Monday, or Thursday night game would be moved to Sunday afternoon. Sunday afternoon games may also be moved between 1:00 p.m. and 4:05 p.m. or 4:25 p.m. ET.

* During the Flex Scheduling Windows, only Sunday afternoon or TBD games are subject to being moved into the Sunday night, Monday, or Thursday night window. The game that has been tentatively scheduled for Sunday Night Football, Monday Night Football, or Thursday Night Football during the Flex Scheduling Windows will generally be listed at 8:20 p.m. ET, 8:15 p.m. ET, and 8:15 p.m. ET, respectively. The majority of games on Sundays will typically be listed at 1:00 p.m. ET during the Flex Scheduling Windows except for games played in Pacific or Mountain time zones, which will be listed at 4:05 or 4:25 p.m. ET. For Sunday Night Football in Weeks 5-13 and for Monday Night Football in Weeks 12-17, the NFL will decide (after consultation with CBS, FOX, NBC, and ESPN) and announce no later than 12 days in advance of the game, which game will be played on Sunday night and which game will be played on Monday night. For Sunday Night Football in Weeks 14-17, the flexible scheduling decision will generally be made no later than six days prior to the game. For Thursday Night Football in Weeks 13-17, the flexible scheduling decision will be made no later than 28 days prior to the game.

In Week 17, three of five designated matchups will be played on Saturday with the remainder to be determined. Specific dates and start times for the designated Week 17 matchups will be determined and announced at a later date during the season.

^ As in prior seasons, for Week 18, the final weekend of the season, the scheduling of the Saturday, Sunday afternoon, and the Sunday night games is not assigned. The schedule for Week 18 will be announced no later than six days prior to that week's Saturday game (Jan. 4, 2025).

2024 POSTSEASON SCHEDULE & SITE PRIORITIES

Super Wild Card Weekend

Beginning Saturday, Jan. 11, 2025

Site Priorities

The No. 1 seed in each conference will receive the only bye. Using NFL tie-breaking procedures, the remaining division champions in each conference will be seeded 2, 3 and 4, followed by the next three teams per conference seeded 5, 6 and 7. Wild Card games will feature the 2 seed hosting the 7 seed, the 3 seed hosting the 6 seed and the 4 seed hosting the 5 seed. There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

Divisional Playoff Games

Saturday and Sunday,
Jan. 18-19, 2025

American Football Conference

Site Priorities

In each conference, the division champion with the highest won-lost-tied percentage during the regular season will play host to the lowest-seeded Wild Card survivor. The other two Wild Card winners play in the other game, with the team with the higher seed playing host. There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

FUTURE OPPONENTS

Under the NFL scheduling formula, every team plays 17 games as follows:

- Home and away against its three division opponents (six games).
- The four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating, three-year cycle (four games).
- The four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating, four-year cycle (four games).
- Two intraconference opponents based on the prior year's standings (two games). These games match a first-place team against the first-place teams in the two same-conference divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in a conference are matched in the same way each year.
- One interconference opponent based on the prior year's standings on a rotating four-year cycle (one game). These games match a first-place team from one division against a first-place team in an opposite-conference division that the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in each division are matched in the same way each year. The home conference for this game will rotate.

IMPORTANT DATES, 2024-25

JULY

July 15 At 4:00 p.m., New York time, deadline for any club that designated a Franchise Player to sign such player to a multiyear contract or extension. After this date, the player may sign only a one-year contract with his prior club for the 2024 season, and such contract cannot be extended until after the club's last regular season game.

Mid-July Clubs are permitted to open preseason training camp for rookies (defined as a player who has never signed an NFL player contract with a club in a prior league year) beginning seven days prior to the club's mandatory reporting date for veteran players. A club's preseason training camp will be deemed to have officially opened on the designated reporting date for all rookies.

Clubs may require first-year players (defined as a player who signed a player contract with any NFL club in a prior league year, but who does not have a pension-credited season) to report on the designated reporting date for all rookies, or at any time thereafter, including, but not limited to, the designated reporting date for veteran quarterbacks and injured players, or the designated reporting date for all other veteran players.

Veteran quarterbacks and "injured players" (as defined in CBA Article 21, Section 6) may be required to report to the club's preseason training camp no earlier than five days immediately prior to the mandatory reporting date for all other veteran players, provided the club has already opened (or simultaneously opens) its official preseason training camp for all rookies.

July 22 At 4:00 p.m., New York time, signing period ends for Transition Players with outstanding tenders. After this date and until 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the Tuesday following the 10th weekend of the regular season, prior club has exclusive negotiating rights.

At 4:00 p.m., New York time, on July 22 (or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp [July 17 in 2024], whichever is later) signing period ends for unrestricted free agents to whom a "UFA Tender" was made by prior club. After this date and until 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the Tuesday following the 10th weekend of the regular season, prior club has exclusive negotiating rights.

AUGUST

Aug. 1 Hall of Fame Game, Houston Texans vs. Chicago Bears (Tom Benson HOF Stadium, Canton, Ohio).

Aug. 1-4 Hall of Fame Weekend (Canton, Ohio).

Aug. 6 If a drafted rookie has not signed with his club by this date, he cannot be traded to any other club in 2024 and may sign a player contract only with the drafting club until the day of the Draft in the 2025 league year.

Aug. 8-11 First Preseason Weekend.

Aug. 15-18 Second Preseason Weekend.

Aug. 22-25 Third Preseason Weekend.

Aug. 27 Prior to 4:00 p.m., New York time, clubs must reduce rosters to a maximum of 53 players on the Active/Inactive List.

Simultaneously with the roster reduction to 53 players, clubs that have players in the categories of Active/Physically Unable to Perform or Active/Non-Football Injury or Illness must select one of the following options: place player on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform or Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness, whichever is applicable; terminate or request waivers with the designation of Failed Physical or Non-Football Injury or Illness, whichever is applicable; request waivers; terminate contract; trade contract; or continue to count the player on the Active List.

Players who are on the Reserve List or Exempt List and are not counting against the 90-player limit will begin to count against the 90-player limit.

Aug. 28 Claiming period for players placed on waivers at the final roster reduction will expire at 12:00 noon, New York time.

Upon receipt of the subsequent Personnel Notice, clubs may establish a Practice Squad of 17 players, as long as one player qualifies as an International Player. No club, including the player's prior club, will be permitted to sign a player to a practice player contract until all clubs have received simultaneous notification via the above Personnel Notice that such player's prior NFL player contract has been terminated via the waiver system.

Beginning at 4:00 p.m., New York time, any player placed on Reserve/Injured, Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness, or Practice Squad; Injured during the regular season or postseason, may be designated for return later in the season, subject to the applicable procedures.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules.

Note: Tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs.

TO BREAK A TIE WITHIN A DIVISION

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

THREE-OR-MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after one-or-more clubs are eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 1 of two-club format. If three clubs remain tied after a fourth club is eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 1 of three-club format.)

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR THE WILD CARD TEAM

If necessary to break ties to determine the three Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

- A. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tiebreaker.
- B. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Strength of victory in all games.
5. Strength of schedule in all games.
6. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best net points in conference games.
9. Best net points in all games.
10. Best net touchdowns in all games.
11. Coin toss.

THREE-OR-MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after one-or-more clubs are eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 1 of two-club format. If three clubs remain tied after a fourth club is eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 2 of three-club format.)

1. Apply division tiebreaker to eliminate all but highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tiebreaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the two Wild Card participants.
2. Head-to-head sweep (apply only if one has defeated each of the others, or one club has lost to each of the others).
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

9. Best net points in conference games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second and third Wild Card (i.e., eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2). In situations in which three teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tiebreaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

OTHER TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

1. Only one club advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the first step of the applicable division or Wild Card tiebreakers. As an example, if two clubs remain tied in any tiebreaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format to determine the winner. When one club wins the tiebreaker, all other clubs revert to Step 1 of the applicable two-club or three-club format.
2. In comparing records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
3. To determine home-field priority among division winners, apply Wild Card tiebreakers.
4. To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tiebreakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tiebreakers (if teams are from different divisions).
5. To determine the best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed, add a team's position in the two categories, and the lowest score wins. For example, if Team A is first in points scored and second in points allowed, its combined ranking is "3." If Team B is third in points scored and first in points allowed, its combined ranking is "4." Team A then wins the tiebreaker. If two teams are tied for a position, both teams are awarded the ranking as if they held it solely. For example, if Team A and Team B are tied for first in points scored, each team is assigned a ranking of "1" in that category, and if Team C is third, its ranking will still be "3."

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE FOR SELECTION MEETING

1. Clubs not participating in the playoffs shall select in the first through 18th positions in reverse-standings order.
2. Clubs participating in the playoffs shall select according to the following procedures:
  - (A) The losers of the Wild Card games shall select in the 19th through 24th positions based on won-loss-tied percentage in reverse-standings order.
  - (B) The losers of the Divisional playoff games shall select in the 25th through 28th positions based on won-loss-tied percentage in reverse-standings order.
  - (C) The losers of the Conference Championship Games shall select 29th and 30th based on won-loss-tied percentage in reverse-standings order.
  - (D) The winner of the Super Bowl game shall select last and the Super Bowl loser will select next-to-last.
3. If ties exist in any grouping, such ties shall be broken by figuring the aggregate won-lost-tied percentage of each involved club's regular-season opponents and awarding preferential selection order to the club that faced the schedule of teams with the lowest aggregate won-lost-tied percentage.
4. If ties still exist, apply the Divisional, Conference or Interconference tie-breaking methods, whichever is applicable.
  - (A) For Divisional or Conference ties, use the procedures on the previous page.
  - (B) For Interconference ties, use the following procedures:
    - (i) Ties involving TWO teams from different conferences will be broken by (a) head-to-head meeting; (b) best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four, (c) strength of victory in all games, (d) best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games, (e) best net points in all games, (f) best net touchdowns in all games, and finally (g) coin toss.
    - (ii) Ties involving THREE-OR-MORE clubs from different conferences will be broken by applying (a) divisional tiebreakers to determine the lowest-ranked team in a division, (b) conference tiebreakers to determine the lowest-ranked team within a conference, and (c) interconference tiebreakers to determine the lowest-ranked team in the league. The process will be repeated until the draft order has been established.

After the selection order for the first round of the draft has been determined, clubs originally involved in two-club ties will alternate positions from round to round. In the cases of ties that originally involved three-or-more clubs, the club at the top of a tied segment in a given round will move to the bottom of the segment for the next round, while all other clubs in the segment move up one place. This rotation will continue throughout the draft.

INSTANT REPLAY

The NFL uses a system of Instant Replay Review to aid officiating. The following procedures will be used:

Coach Challenges: In each game, a team will be permitted two challenges that will initiate Instant Replay reviews. The Head Coach can initiate a challenge by throwing a red flag onto the field of play before the next legal snap or kick. Each challenge requires an available team timeout. A team that is out of timeouts, or has used all its available challenges, may not attempt to initiate a challenge. If a challenge is unsuccessful, the team will be charged a timeout. If a team is successful on one of its challenges, it is allowed a third challenge, but a fourth challenge will not be permitted.

The Head Coach may challenge on-field rulings identified in the Reviewable Plays section below, except for those plays that only the Replay Official can challenge. If a team initiates a challenge when it is not permitted to do so, it will be charged a timeout. The penalty for initiating a challenge when a team has exhausted its timeouts is a loss of 15 yards.

Replay Official Request for Review: Only the Replay Official or the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee may challenge a play that 1) begins after the two-minute warning of each half, 2) happens throughout any overtime period, 3) happens when points are scored by either team, 4) is a Try attempt (successful or unsuccessful), or 5) in which the final on-field ruling includes:

- An interception by an opponent;
- A fumble or backward pass recovered by an opponent or that goes out of bounds through the opponent's end zone;
- A possession by the kicking team at the end of any free kick or scrimmage kick down;
- A play in which the offense failed to reach the line to gain on fourth down; or
- A disqualification of a player.

Such plays can be challenged only by the Replay Official or the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee, including when a foul is committed on the play that, if accepted, would negate the on-field ruling.

There is no limit to the number of Replay Reviews that may be initiated by the Replay Official. The Replay Official may only challenge a play until the next legal snap or kick.

Replay Reviews: All Replay Reviews will be conducted by the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee. Reviews are conducted in consultation with the Replay Official and the Referee, who will have access to a field-level video monitor. An on-field ruling will be changed only when the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee determines that clear and obvious video evidence warrants a change.

A replay-review decision must be made within 60 seconds from when video is sent to the hand-held, field-level device.

All reviewable aspects of the play may be examined and are subject to reversal, even if not identified in a coach's challenge or if not the specific reason for a Replay Official's request for review.

Reviewable Plays: The Replay System will cover the following play situations:

- Plays involving possession.
- Plays involving touching of either the ball or the ground.
- Plays governed by the goal line.
- Plays governed by the boundary lines.
- Plays governed by the line of scrimmage.
- Plays governed by the line to gain.
- Number of players on the field, even when a foul is not called.
- Game administration:
  - Penalty enforcement.
  - Proper down.
  - Spot of a foul.
  - Status of the game clock.
- Disqualification of a player for football and non-football acts.
- Other reviewable plays:
  - Direction of a pass.
  - Illegal forward pass.
  - Field goal or Try attempt.
  - Illegal forward handoff.
  - Ball touching a foreign object.

When the on-field ruling results in a dead ball (e.g., score, down by contact, incomplete pass, etc.), and following replay review, it is determined that possession was lost before the ball should have been ruled dead, possession can be awarded to a player who clearly recovers a loose ball in the immediate continuing action. When the on-field ruling is an incomplete pass and there is no clear recovery, the ball will be awarded to the team last in possession at the spot where it lost possession. A loose ball that touches out of bounds is deemed a clear recovery by the player who last possessed the ball. A preliminary ruling by on-field officials of which team recovered the ball can also constitute a clear recovery.

When a ruling is changed in replay, the game clock will be reset to the time when the ball should have been declared dead and the clock status is determined by rule. The game clock is not reset if the on-field ruling is not changed in replay.

When a changed ruling after the two-minute warning results in a game clock that would start before the snap, the clock is reset to the time when the play should have ended, and the clock will run for 10 seconds from the reset time. If less than 10 seconds remain in the half or the game, the half or the game is over. Either team may use a team timeout to avoid the 10-second runoff.

INSTANT REPLAY HISTORY

From 1986-91, a limited system of Instant Replay was used on a year-by-year basis. Replay also was experimented with during the 1996 and 1998 preseasons.

For the 1999 season, the NFL introduced a system of Referee Replay Review to aid officiating. That system was extended on a one-year basis for the 2000 season and then approved for the next three years through 2003. The system was extended on a five-year basis in March 2004 and was later installed permanently in March 2007.

Following are the results of the different systems:

WAIVER & PERSONNEL INFORMATION

WAIVERS

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the league. During the procedure, the 31 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so—thus the term “waiver.” Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. With certain exceptions, the claiming period is 24 hours from the first business day after the Super Bowl through the conclusion of the regular season. If a player passes through waivers unclaimed, he becomes a free agent. All waivers are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year through the trading deadline, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit is not subject to the waiver system if the club desires to release him. After the trading deadline, such players are subject to the waiver system.

ACTIVE/INACTIVE LIST

The Active/Inactive List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract who are eligible for preseason, regular-season and postseason games. Clubs are permitted to open training camp with no more than 90 players under contract and thereafter must meet a mandatory roster reduction prior to the season-opener. Clubs will be permitted an Active List of 47 players (or 48 players if teams carry eight offensive linemen) and an Inactive List of five or six players to complete their 53-player rosters for each regular-season and postseason game. A club that does not carry three quarterbacks on its 47/48-player Active List is permitted to designate one quarterback from its Inactive List as its emergency Third Quarterback. A Third Quarterback can be activated during a game if the club's first two quarterbacks are disqualified, injured or undergoing a medical examination. In addition, each club is permitted to elevate two players from its Practice Squad each week to increase its roster to 54 or 55 players.

PRACTICE SQUAD

Clubs are permitted to establish Practice Squads of up to 16 players who are eligible to participate in practice, but these players remain free agents and are eligible to sign with any other team. An additional 17th player may be signed if the player qualifies as an International Player.

PRESEASON ROSTER DATES, 2024

Aug. 27 .....Roster reduction to 53 players
 Aug. 28 .....Teams establish practice squads

In addition to the squad limits described above, the overall roster limit of 90 players remains in effect throughout the regular season and postseason. The overall limit is applicable to players on a team's Active, Inactive and certain exempt lists, players on the Practice Squad, and players on the Reserve List as Injured, Physically Unable to Perform, Non-Football Illness/Injury, and Suspended by Club.

RESERVE LIST

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Except for eight players who must be Designated for Return, players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active/Inactive List in the same season that they are placed on Reserve. Players in the category of Reserve/Retired, Reserve/Did Not Report or Reserve/Exclusive Rights, and players who were placed in the category of Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season, may not be reinstated after a club's Week 13 game. No reinstatement may occur in the last five weeks of the regular season through the postseason.

2024 COACHING STAFF

John Harbaugh, Head Coach

Pro Career: Super Bowl-winning head coach John Harbaugh enters his 17th season at the helm in Baltimore. He has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in 11 (2008-12, 2014, 2018-20, 2022-23) of his 16 full seasons, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl championship. Under Harbaugh's guidance, Baltimore is one of four teams with at least 11 playoff berths in the past 16 seasons, joining New England (12), Green Bay (12) and Kansas City (11). Harbaugh has also led the Ravens to playoff berths in five (2018-20, 2022-23) of the past six seasons, producing the league's second-most regular-season victories (66) during that span. The 2023 AFC North Champion Ravens produced the NFL's best record (13-4), earned a No. 1 playoff seed and hosted the first conference title game in franchise history. During the regular season, Baltimore tallied an NFL-record 10 victories vs. teams that finished with a winning record. In 2019, Harbaugh became the first Ravens coach to win Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year, leading the team to the AFC's No. 1 playoff seed and a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore also won a franchise-record 12 straight games to close out the regular season. In 2018, Baltimore (10-6) captured the AFC North Division title, earning a Wild Card berth. In 2014, the Ravens posted a 10-6 record, en route to capturing a 30-17 victory at Pittsburgh in the Wild Card round. In 2012, the Ravens seized the franchise's second Super Bowl championship. Baltimore topped the Colts in the Wild Card round and followed that by earning a Divisional Round victory over top-seeded Denver before advancing to Super Bowl XLVII with a win in the AFC Championship Game at New England. In the Super Bowl in New Orleans, the Ravens bested the San Francisco 49ers, 34-31. In his initial season with the team (2008), Harbaugh led Baltimore to an 11-5 record and a berth in the AFC Championship Game. Baltimore set an NFL record that season for most total wins (13) by a team with both a rookie head coach and a rookie starting quarterback (Joe Flacco). Harbaugh spent his first 10 NFL seasons (1998-2007) with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was the team's secondary coach in 2007, after nine seasons as its special teams coordinator. In 2001, he was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. Career record: 172-109.

Background: Played defensive back at Miami (Ohio) from 1980-83, earning a degree in political science. Coached collegiately at Western Michigan (1984-86), Pittsburgh (1987), Morehead State (1988), Cincinnati (1989-96) and Indiana (1997).

Personal: Born in Perrysburg, Ohio, on Sept. 23, 1962, Harbaugh and his wife, Ingrid, have a daughter, Alison. Son of longtime college coach Jack. His brother, Jim, head coach of the Los Angeles Chargers, played for the Ravens in 1998. John's brother-in-law, Tom Crean, a longtime college head basketball coach, is married to the brothers' sister, Joani.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Sean McDermott, Head Coach

Pro Career: McDermott was named Buffalo's 19th head coach on Jan. 11, 2017. He enters his eighth season as Buffalo's head coach and his 26th season in the NFL ranks. McDermott joined the Bills after spending six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers. In his first year in Buffalo, McDermott led the Bills to their first playoff berth since 1999 with a 9-7 record. He became the third coach in Bills history to earn a playoff berth in his first season at the helm, joining Joe Collier (1966) and Wade Phillips (1998). The 2017 Bills also won six home games for the first time since 1999. In his second year in Buffalo, McDermott led the Bills to the NFL's second-ranked defense and since 2018 the Bills have allowed 18.5 points per game, the lowest in the NFL during that stretch. McDermott led the Bills back to the playoffs in 2019, as the team recorded its first 10-win season since 1999 and has now won 11-plus games for the fourth straight season, tying the longest streak in team history (1990-93). In 2020, he led the Bills to the AFC Championship Game for the first time since 1994. The Bills have won four straight AFC East titles, dating back to 2020, for the first time since 1988-91. Career record: 78-47.

Background: An all-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety for William & Mary as a senior in 1997, McDermott graduated with a degree in finance and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born March 21, 1974. He and his wife, Jamie, have three children

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform

2024 COACHING STAFF

Zac Taylor, Head Coach

Pro Career: Zac Taylor is in his sixth season as head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals, after being named the 10th head coach in team history on Feb. 4, 2019. In 2023, his fifth season as head coach, Taylor guided the Bengals to their third consecutive winning season as the team posted a 9-8 record. He led Cincinnati to back-to-back AFC North titles in 2021 and 2022, marking the first time in team history the Bengals won their division in consecutive years. Under Taylor's direction in 2021, the Bengals won the AFC for the first time since 1988 and advanced to Super Bowl LVI. They followed up with another AFC Championship Game appearance following the 2022 season, improving Taylor's post-season record to 5-2. Taylor came to Cincinnati after two seasons with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in 2017 and quarterbacks coach in '18. With Taylor on staff, the Rams won the NFC West in 2018 and advanced to Super Bowl LIII. Taylor broke into NFL coaching in 2012 with the Miami Dolphins as assistant quarterbacks coach. He was elevated to quarterbacks coach from 2013-15. He spent the final five games of 2015 as the Dolphins' interim offensive coordinator and primary play-caller. Career record: 42-46-1.

Background: Played quarterback at Wake Forest (2002-03), Butler County (Kan.) C.C. (2004) and Nebraska (2005-06). As a senior in 2006, Taylor was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year after passing for 3,197 yards and leading the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record, an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017. He joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp. Later that year, he joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League, where he spent one season (did not play). Taylor coached collegiately at Texas A&M (2008-11) and Cincinnati (2016).

Personal: Taylor was born on May 10, 1983, in Norman, Okla. He earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska in 2006. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah Taylor is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman. Taylor's father, Sherman, was a defensive back and captain at Oklahoma (1976-79). Sherwood Taylor later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State. Taylor's brother, Press, played quarterback at Marshall and is currently the offensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Kevin Stefanski, Head Coach

Pro Career: Reigning NFL Coach of the Year Kevin Stefanski enters his fifth season as Cleveland Browns head coach after being named the 18th full-time head coach in franchise history by Managing and Principal Partners Dee and Jimmy Haslam on Jan. 13, 2020. Stefanski became the 16th coach to win the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Award multiple times since its inception in 1957, winning the honors in 2023 and 2020, and joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Forrest Gregg (1976) as the only Browns coaches to win the award. In his four seasons as head coach, the Browns are 37-30 (.552), the highest-regular-season winning percentage for the team over a four-year stretch since 1986-89. Stefanski has led the team to two post-season appearances and two 11-win seasons. He joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Paul Brown (1951 and 1953) as the only coaches in team history to record multiple seasons with at least 11 regular-season wins. Before the Browns, he spent 14 seasons (2006-19) with the Minnesota Vikings and moved up the coaching ladder. He gained his first league experience with the Vikings in 2006 as assistant to the head coach before transitioning to assistant quarterbacks coach from 2009-13, then spending two seasons tutoring the tight ends (2014-15), one season (2016) as running backs coach, two seasons guiding the quarterbacks (2017-18) and adding the role of interim offensive coordinator for the remaining three games of the 2018 season. The Vikings promoted him to offensive coordinator in 2019. Career record: 38-32.

Background: Stefanski played defensive back at Pennsylvania (2000-04) and earned a bachelor's degree in communications.

Personal: Born April 8, 1982, Stefanski is a native of Philadelphia, Pa. He and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Will and Gabe, and one daughter, Juliet.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Sean Payton, Head Coach

Pro Career: Sean Payton enters his second season with the Denver Broncos after being named the 20th head coach in franchise history on Feb. 3, 2023. In his first season with the club in 2023, the Broncos finished with their best record since 2016 at 8-9. A 35-year coaching veteran with 25 seasons of NFL experience, Payton joined the Broncos after spending 15 years as New Orleans' head coach (2006-11, '13-21). While with the Saints, Payton accumulated a regular-season record of 152-89-0 and a 9-8 record in the playoffs. He also led the franchise to its first Super Bowl championship (Super Bowl XLIV) during the 2009 season along with making two NFC Championship Game appearances, winning seven NFC South Division titles and making nine playoff trips. With New Orleans, Payton helped lead an offense that ranked in the top 10 in each season from 2006-19. In his first season with the Saints in 2006, he received unanimous NFL Coach of the Year honors after leading the team to a 10-6 record. Prior to joining New Orleans, he spent three years on the Dallas Cowboys staff as assistant to the head coach & quarterbacks coach (2003-05). Payton got his first NFL offensive coordinator position with the New York Giants (2000-02) after spending one season as the team's quarterbacks coach (1999). He first entered the NFL with the Philadelphia Eagles as their quarterbacks coach (1997-98). Career record: 169-106-0.

Background: Attended Eastern Illinois (1983-86). Coached collegiately at Illinois (1996), Miami (Ohio) (1994-95), San Diego State (1988-89; '92-93) and Indiana State (1990-91). Had brief playing stops with the Chicago Bruins (AFL), Ottawa Rough Riders (CFL) and Chicago Bears in 1987.

Personal: Born Dec. 29, 1963, in San Mateo, Calif. Payton is married to Skyline. He has one daughter, Meghan, and one son, Connor.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Lou Aveni, running backs; born Feb. 5, 1981; Woodbury, Minn. Running back/safety Northwestern 1999-2003. Pro safety Indianapolis Colts 2004-05, linebacker St. Louis Rams 2005-06. The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

DeMeco Ryans, Head Coach

Pro Career: DeMeco Ryans enters his second season as head coach of the Texans after being named to the role on Jan. 31, 2023, becoming the sixth head coach in franchise history. In the Texans first year under Ryans, the Texans finished with an 10-7 record and clinched a playoff berth for the first time since 2019. Houston won their seventh AFC South title and became the first team in NFL history to win their division with a rookie quarterback and first-year head coach. Additionally, Ryans and QB C.J. Stroud became the fourth rookie quarterback and first-year head coach to win a playoff game together. The Texans defeated the Cleveland Browns, 45-14, in the Wild Card round to secure their fifth playoff victory in team history. Houston finished with 11 total wins, including the postseason, which marked the fifth time in team history recording 11-or-more wins in a season. Under Ryans, Stroud and DE Will Anderson Jr. were named the Associated Press NFL Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year, marking a Texans sweep of the top rookie awards. The Texans are the fourth team since 1967 to win both Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year in the same season. The team's bright season produced two AFC Player of the Month awards, six Player of the Week awards and two NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month awards, while Stroud, Anderson and T Laremy Tunsil were all selected to the Pro Bowl following the season. Ryans coached a team that boasted a +10 net differential in turnover margin, which ranked top-five in the NFL. Houston finished the season ranked sixth in rushing defense (96.6 yards per game allowed), while also finishing seventh in the league in passing yards per game (245.5) and 11th in points allowed (20.8). Ryans was named the PFWA Coach of the Year, becoming the first coach in franchise history to win the award. In 2022, which marked his last season in San Francisco, Ryans was named the PFWA Assistant Coach of the Year. He coached six seasons with the 49ers and two as the team's defensive coordinator (2021-22), helping lead the team to the NFC Championship. He spent the previous three seasons (2018-20) as the 49ers inside linebackers coach, while serving as the team's defensive quality control coach in 2017.

Background: Originally drafted in the second round (33rd overall) by the Texans in the 2006 NFL Draft, Ryans played for Houston (2006-11) and the Philadelphia Eagles (2012-15). He was a team captain for the Texans' 2011 season, a squad that claimed the franchise's inaugural AFC South title and playoff berth. Ryans holds the Texans record for the most tackles by a rookie (156) and currently sits as the second-leading tackler in franchise history (636). During his 10-year playing career, Ryans was named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and PFWA Rookie of the Year in 2006, first-team All-Pro in 2007 and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2007 and 2009. He appeared in 140 career games (139 starts) throughout his career and registered 970 tackles, 46 passes defended, 13.5 sacks, seven forced fumbles, 10 fumble recoveries and seven interceptions.

Personal: Born July 28, 1984, and a native of Bessemer, Ala., Ryans played linebacker at the University of Alabama (2002-05). As a senior, he was a unanimous All-American selection, SEC Defensive Player of the Year and earned first-team All-SEC honors in 2005. Ryans and his wife, Jamila, have two daughters, Xia and Zuri, and two sons, MJ and Micah.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Shane Steichen, Head Coach

Pro Career: Shane Steichen was hired as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts on Feb. 14, 2023. He has 14 years of coaching experience, including the last 13 seasons in the NFL. In his first year in Indianapolis, Steichen guided the team to a winning record, finishing the season 9-8. The Colts finished in the top 10 in the NFL in points per game (23.3 – tied-10th) and rushing yards per game (121.1 – 10th). Defensively, Indianapolis ranked fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss (94) and sacks (51), while finishing tied for fifth in forced fumbles (17). The team's 51 sacks were the most by the Colts in the Indianapolis era (since 1984). The Colts had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including defensive tackle DeForest Buckner, center Ryan Kelly, quarterback Gardner Minshew II and guard Quenton Nelson. Prior to Indianapolis, Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles for two seasons (2021-22) and helped the team reach Super Bowl LVII in 2022. During his two seasons as offensive coordinator, he guided an offense that ranked first in the NFL in rushing yards per game (153.6), rushing yards (5,224) and rushing touchdowns (57) over that time frame. Philadelphia also ranked tied for first in fewest interceptions (19) and third in fourth-down conversion percentage (58.92 percent). Additionally, the Eagles' offense set new single-season franchise records in third-down conversion percentage in back-to-back seasons. Steichen spent seven seasons (2014-20) with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers, where he served as offensive coordinator (2020), interim offensive coordinator (2019), quarterbacks coach (2016-19) and offensive quality control/wide receivers coach (2014-15). The Chargers' offense finished in the top 10 in passing yards per game in each of his seven years on the offensive staff, including the league's best in 2017. In 2013, Steichen assisted the quarterbacks as an offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns. He began his NFL career as a defensive assistant with the Chargers (2011-12) after spending one season as a full-time offensive assistant at Louisville (2010). Steichen also served as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and student graduate assistant (2007) at his alma mater, Nevada-Las Vegas.

Background: As a four-year letterman (2003-06) at quarterback for the Rebels, Steichen left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer with 2,755 yards and 22 touchdowns. He also registered 399 rushing yards and five touchdowns.

Personal: A native of Sacramento, Calif., Steichen was born on May 11, 1985. He and his wife, Nina, have a son, Hudson, and a daughter, Stella.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Doug Pederson, Head Coach

Pro Career: Two-time Super Bowl champion Doug Pederson was named the eighth head coach in Jaguars history on Feb. 3, 2022. In his first two seasons leading the Jaguars, Jacksonville produced a winning record in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2004-05. In 2023, the team finished 9-8 and second in the AFC South. In Pederson's first year as head coach of the Jaguars, he led the team to its first AFC South title and first playoff appearance since 2017. Pederson joined the Jaguars after spending five seasons as the head coach (2016-20) of the Philadelphia Eagles, compiling a 46-39-1 record during the regular season and postseason. During his time in Philadelphia, the Eagles made the playoffs in three consecutive seasons (2017-19) and won two NFC East titles (2017 and 2019). In 2017, Pederson led the Eagles to their first-ever Super Bowl championship in Super Bowl LII with a 41-33 victory against the Patriots. Prior to arriving in Philadelphia, Pederson served as the offensive coordinator of the Kansas City Chiefs from 2013-15, helping the team post a 31-17 regular season record over three seasons. Pederson helped QB Alex Smith experience the most productive stretch of his career with three consecutive 3,000-yard seasons. Before joining Kansas City, Pederson coached the quarterbacks in Philadelphia from 2011-12. In his first year in that role, Pederson saw Michael Vick become the second quarterback in NFL history to top the 3,000-yard passing and 500-yard rushing plateaus in consecutive seasons. A 12-year NFL veteran, Pederson played quarterback for the Green Bay Packers, Miami Dolphins, Philadelphia Eagles and Cleveland Browns after originally being drafted by the Carolina Panthers in the 1995 expansion draft. He was coached by three of the most successful coaches in NFL history: Don Shula, Mike Holmgren and Andy Reid. Pederson played for Green Bay from 1996-98 and 2001-04 and was part of Packers teams that won Super Bowl XXXI, two NFC championships (1996 and 1997) and six division titles. Career record: 65-56-1.

Background: The Bellingham, Wash., native attended Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana Monroe), where he was a three-year starter at quarterback. He finished his career with 6,445 yards and 33 touchdowns on 571-of-1,032 passing. Made his coaching debut as head coach at Calvary Baptist Academy in Shreveport, La., from 2005-08.

Personal: Born Jan. 31, 1968. He and his wife, Jeannie, have three sons: Drew and his wife AnnMarie (the couple have one son, Lincoln); Josh and his wife Ryan (the couple have two sons, Brodie and Baylor); and Joel, who is a senior at Clemson University.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Andy Reid, Head Coach

Pro Career: Andy Reid was named the 13th head coach in Kansas City Chiefs history on Jan. 7, 2013. He is entering his 33rd season in the National Football League and his 26th season as an NFL head coach in 2024. In 2023, the Chiefs earned their eighth consecutive AFC West title and sixth consecutive AFC Championship Game appearance, and became one of just eight teams to win back-to-back Super Bowl titles in league history (LVII and LVIII). The Chiefs took down the 49ers, 25-22, in overtime to make history. With Reid's third Super Bowl win with the Chiefs, he is the only active head coach who has led teams to multiple Super Bowl wins. Reid now owns 26 postseason victories, second only to Bill Belichick's 31 postseason wins. In 2022, his 10th season with the Chiefs, Reid and company tallied 14 wins, tying the record set in 2020 under Reid's direction, and going undefeated against the AFC West for the first time since 2019. The Chiefs also hosted their fifth consecutive AFC Championship Game, an NFL record, and defeated the Cincinnati Bengals en route to their Super Bowl LVII victory over the Eagles. In 2019, Reid led the Chiefs to their first Super Bowl appearance and victory in 50 years, bringing the Lombardi Trophy back to Kansas City for the first time since 1969. Additionally, the Chiefs' 35-24 victory over the Tennessee Titans in the AFC Championship Game brought the Lamar Hunt Trophy to Kansas City for the first time ever. In 2015 Reid also led the Chiefs to their first playoff win since 1993, with a win at Houston in the Wild Card round of the playoffs. In his first season in Kansas City in 2013, he helped orchestrate the franchise's best single-season turnaround as the Chiefs won 11 games and made the playoffs after going 2-14 the previous season. Prior to joining the Chiefs, he served as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles for 14 years (1999-2012), earning NFL Coach of the Year honors three times. Reid compiled the best win total (140) and playoff victory total (10) in Eagles history. He captured six division titles and five trips to the NFC Championship Game. Reid was an assistant coach with Green Bay (1992-98) under Mike Holmgren. With Green Bay, he helped the Packers earn a Super Bowl XXXI victory over New England. Career record: 284-160-1.

Background: A tackle and guard at Brigham Young (1979-81), Reid played on three Cougars Holiday Bowl teams. Served as a college coach at Brigham Young (1982), San Francisco State (1983-85), Northern Arizona (1986), Texas-El Paso (1987-88) and Missouri (1989-91). Reid graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He also received a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics.

Personal: Born March 19, 1958, in Los Angeles, Calif. Reid and his wife, Tammy, have five children: Britt, Crosby, Drew Ann, Spencer and the late Garrett. He has 13 grandchildren: Maverick, Somers, Saylor, Blake, Reid, Brigitte, Canyon, Ryker, Rylen, Garrett, Ford, Levi and Deacon Andrew.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Antonio Pierce, Head Coach

Pro career: Antonio Pierce was named head coach of the Raiders on Jan. 19, 2024. He finished the 2023 season with a 5-4 record after being named Interim Head Coach of the Raiders on Oct. 31, 2023. Pierce led the Silver and Black to a 3-1 record against AFC West opponents, highlighted by a franchise-record 63 points in a Week 15 win over the Chargers, and led one of just three NFL teams to score 20-or-more points in each of the last four games of the regular season. Under his guidance, the Raiders finished the season with the fewest penalties in the NFL (75) and twice completed games without a single penalty flag. After Pierce took the helm in Week 9, the Raiders were tied for 10th in the NFL in takeaways (14), tied for fifth in turnover margin (plus-six), and tied for third in sacks (30). The defense also allowed a league-low 16.0 points per game. He originally joined the Raiders as the team's linebackers coach in 2022 after spending four seasons at Arizona State (2018-21), serving as linebackers coach before adding the titles of associate head coach and defensive coordinator. Began his coaching career as the head coach at Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High School from 2014-17. Career record: 5-4.

Background: A nine-year NFL veteran who was a member of the Giants Super Bowl XLII championship team and was named to the Pro Bowl in 2006. Originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Washington Redskins in 2001. Played collegiately for two seasons at Arizona after transferring from Mount San Antonio College.

Personal: Born Oct. 26, 1978, Pierce grew up in Compton, Calif., and attended Paramount (Calif.) High School, where he was an All-CIF Southern Section selection as a linebacker and also played fullback.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "*" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Jim Harbaugh, Head Coach

Pro Career: Jim Harbaugh returns to the Chargers as the 19th head coach in franchise history, bringing with him a winning culture, posting a 144-52 record as a collegiate head coach and a 49-22-1 record as an NFL head coach. Harbaugh rejoined the Chargers after spending the past nine years at his alma mater as head football coach for the University of Michigan. Over the last nine seasons at Michigan, he led the Wolverines to an 86-25 record along with three consecutive Big Ten Championships, three straight appearances in the College Football Playoff and a perfect 15-0 record and the 2023 National Championship during his final season in Ann Arbor. During his nine years at Michigan, Harbaugh coached the top defense in the nation, allowing just 291.0 yards per game in that span. Michigan had a top-five defense in the country five times over those nine seasons, including twice as the top-ranked defense in the nation. Harbaugh returned to his alma mater after spending four seasons (2011-14) as the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers, leading the team to a 49-22-1 record and three consecutive NFC Championship Games, including a victory in 2012 to represent the NFC in Super Bowl XLVII. He was named 2011 NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press after his first season with San Francisco, when he led the 49ers to an NFC West division crown with a 13-3 record. That season, the defense led the NFL with 38 takeaways and ranked No. 1 in rushing defense, allowing just 77.3 yards per game on the ground. Harbaugh coached 17 players to a combined 30 Pro Bowls with the 49ers — the second-most Pro Bowlers in the NFL in that time. Eight of those players were also recognized as AP first-team All-Pro, including linebackers Patrick Willis (twice) and NaVorro Bowman (three times). Over Harbaugh's four years with San Francisco, the 49ers led the NFL in rushing defense (92.0 yards per game), while ranking No. 2 in scoring defense (17.4 points per game), third in total defense (310.2) and No. 4 with 122 takeaways. Career record: 49-22-1.

Background: Played quarterback at Michigan (1982-86) before playing quarterback 15 seasons in the National Football League with the Bears (1987-93), Colts (1994-97), Ravens (1998), Chargers (1999-2000) and Panthers (2001). Worked as an assistant for his father, Jack Harbaugh, at Western Kentucky during his NFL playing career. Coached as an offensive assistant for the Raiders from 2002-03 before becoming the head coach at the University of San Diego (2004-06) and Stanford (2007-10).

Personal: Born Dec. 23, 1963, in Toledo, Ohio. Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters — Addison and Katherine — and two sons — Jack and John. He also has three adult children — Jay, James Jr., and Grace. Harbaugh's son, Jay, is the special teams coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks. Jim is also the younger brother of Baltimore Ravens head coach John Harbaugh. Their brother-in-law, Tom Crean, is a longtime college head basketball coach and is married to the brothers' sister, Joani.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Mike McDaniel, Head Coach

Pro Career: Mike McDaniel became the 11th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on Feb. 7, 2022. The 2023 season was McDaniel's 17th in the NFL and second as a head coach. McDaniel became the third coach in Dolphins history to make the playoffs his first two seasons. Under his leadership, multiple players reached new career milestones, including six Pro Bowl selections in 2023 and four in 2022. The 2023 Dolphins led the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time in 30 years. The team also led the league in passing offense (265.5), yards per carry (5.1) and fewest quarterback hits allowed (59). Wide receiver Tyreek Hill recorded 119 receptions for 1,799 yards, breaking his own single-season record set in 2022 (1,710). Hill became the first player in Dolphins history to lead the league in receiving yards in a full season and the first player in NFL history to have 1,700+ receiving yards in multiple seasons. Wide receiver Jaylen Waddle finished with 1,014 receiving yards, becoming the first player in franchise history to post three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa threw for 4,624 yards, leading the league in passing on the way to his first Pro Bowl appearance. Tagovailoa also became the first Dolphins player in 30 years to win AFC Offensive Player of the Month in September. Running back Raheem Mostert in 2022, the Dolphins offense ranked in the top 10 for the first time since 1995. Hill's 119 receptions and 1,710 receiving yards broke Miami's single-season franchise records. Waddle caught 75 passes for 1,356 yards and eight touchdowns and led the league in yards per reception (18.1). Tagovailoa led the NFL in passer rating (105.5) and red-zone passer rating (112.2). McDaniel spent five seasons (2017-21) with the San Francisco 49ers, where he was the team's run game specialist in 2017 before being promoted to run game coordinator in 2018 and again to offensive coordinator in 2021. The 49ers had four offensive players earn Pro Bowl selections and finished seventh in total offense (375.7 yards per game) in 2021. As run game coordinator from 2018-20, McDaniel helped the 49ers finish fifth in rushing (127.0 yards per game) in that span despite having a different lead-rusher in all three seasons. During his five years in San Francisco, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game twice, winning it in 2019. McDaniel also went to the Super Bowl in 2016 as an offensive assistant in Atlanta, where he served in that role from 2015-16. McDaniel also was wide receivers coach in Cleveland (2014), wide receivers coach (2013) and offensive assistant working with the offensive line (2011-12) in Washington, running backs coach for Sacramento in the United Football League (2009-10) and offensive assistant with the Houston Texans (2006-08). He began his coaching career as an intern in Denver (2005). Career record: 9-9.

Background: McDaniel earned a bachelor's degree in history from Yale, where he played wide receiver. No pro playing experience.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Jerod Mayo, Head Coach

Pro Career: Jerod Mayo was introduced by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft as the 15th head coach in franchise history in a press conference at Gillette Stadium on Jan. 17, 2024. Mayo was drafted by the Patriots in the first round (10th overall) of the 2008 draft out of Tennessee and spent his entire NFL career in New England before retiring following the 2015 season. Mayo played linebacker and appeared in 103 games during his career, racking up 905 total tackles. He was named captain for seven consecutive seasons (2009-15) and is a 2014 Super Bowl Champion. Mayo made the Pro Bowl after the 2010 and 2012 seasons after leading the league in tackles each season. In 2010, he earned Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors. He led the Patriots in total tackles in each of his first five seasons and became just the second Patriots player to win the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year award. Mayo played collegiately at Tennessee from 2005-07 and appeared in 32 games, registering 236 total tackles. Mayo becomes the fourth person to be named head coach after playing for the previous coach (Bill Belichick) with the same team since the 1970 merger. The others are Mike Tice of Minnesota (under Dennis Green), Jack Pardee of Washington (under George Allen) and Bart Starr of Green Bay (under Dan Devine). Following his retirement, Mayo served as an executive in finance at Optum as senior vice president of business development before returning to the Patriots to start his coaching career as inside linebackers coach in 2019. While at Optum from 2016 through 2019, Mayo took the skills and understanding that he mastered in football and transformed himself into a business executive. While at Optum, he worked on consumer solutions with clients and consulted on mergers and acquisitions. In 2019, Mayo returned to the Patriots when he joined Bill Belichick's staff as the inside linebackers coach. In his five seasons with the Patriots, the defense finished in the top-10 in total defense four times. Under Mayo's tutelage in his first coaching season, Dont'a Hightower earned his second career Pro Bowl nod and the defense finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense (275.9 yards per game) and scoring (14.1 points allowed per game). Without a defensive coordinator by title in the past five seasons, Mayo's role and responsibilities grew each year. Last season, the defense ranked seventh overall in yards allowed. In 2022, the Patriots defense finished the season ranked 8th in yards allowed and tied for second with San Francisco with 30 total takeaways. Matthew Judon tallied career highs in sack totals in back-to-back seasons, recording 12½ sacks in 2021 and 15½ in 2022. The 15½ sacks rank third in team history and for a franchise record 102.5 sack yards. Judon earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl invitation and second straight with the Patriots. He also earned PFWA-All-AFC Team honors and was named the Week 5 AFC Defensive Player of the Week. Josh Uche also recorded career highs in 2022, finishing with 11½ sacks for 49.5 yards. He had six sacks in a three-game span, second most in team history. Uche earned AFC Player of the Week honors in Week 14 after his three-sack performance against Arizona. In 2023, the Patriots defense finished ranked seventh in total defense. The Patriots allowed just 3.3 yards per rush, the lowest in the NFL in 2023 and the lowest in team history since the 1970 merger. The previous low was 3.4 yards per rush by the 1974 team.

Background: Mayo spent four seasons at Tennessee, starting in 26 of 32 games and recorded 236 total tackles 6 ½ sacks and an interception that he returned 34 yards for a touchdown. He served as a co-captain as a senior in 2007 and was an All-American second-team choice and consensus All-Southeastern Conference first-team selection.

Personal: Mayo was born Feb. 23, 1986, in Hampton, Va. His brother, Deron, joined the Patriots organization in 2018 as a strength & conditioning assistant coach. Jerod and his wife, Chantel, are the parents of three daughters, Chya, Chyanne and Chylo, and a son, Jerod Jr.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Robert Saleh, Head Coach

Pro career: Robert Saleh was named the head coach of the New York Jets by Vice Chairman Christopher Johnson on Jan. 19, 2021. Now in his 20th season coaching in the NFL, and fourth with the Jets, Saleh spent four seasons as the defensive coordinator with San Francisco (2017-20), previously coaching in the NFL with the Houston Texans (2005-10), Seattle Seahawks (2011-13) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-16). In his third season as Head Coach, Saleh oversaw a top-five defense for the second consecutive season, ranking third overall in total defense in 2023 after finishing fourth in the same category in 2022. The Jets were the only team to finish in the top five in total defense each of the last two seasons. The last time the Jets finished in the top five in total defense in consecutive seasons was 2010-11, when they finished third and fifth respectively. Since the start of the 2022 season, the Jets' defense has allowed 301.7 yards per game, the second-lowest mark in the league. After recording 16 takeaways in 2022, which ranked 29th in the league, Saleh made forcing turnovers a priority, resulting in 27 takeaways in 2023, tied for the eighth most in the league. Saleh's late-game adjustments were crucial in 2023 as the Jets registered four wins after trailing in the fourth quarter, tied for the second most in the league. In the second half and OT, the Jets' defense allowed 7.65 points per game, tied for the third-lowest total in the league, and held opponents to seven points or less in 10 of 17 games, tied for the most in the NFL. Saleh oversaw career-bests for players in all three phases last season. WR Garrett Wilson hauled in 95 receptions for 1,042 yards, becoming the first wide receiver in team history and the 16th player in NFL history to total 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two seasons. RB Breece Hall recorded 1,585 yards from scrimmage, the fourth most in the NFL and the 10th 1,500-scrimmage-yard season in franchise history. Additionally, Hall was the only running back in 2023 with 75-plus receptions and 500-plus receiving yards. K Greg Zuerlein, P Thomas Morstead and WR Xavier Gipson all received Special Teams Player of the Week honors, marking only the fifth time since 2015 that a team had three different players receive the honor. CB Sauce Gardner became the first cornerback since the merger to be named first-team All Pro in each of his first two seasons. LB Quincy Williams was named first-team All Pro and earned Curtis Martin Team MVP after being claimed off waivers by the Jets following roster cuts prior to the 2021 season. Gardner, DL Quinnen Williams and LB Jermaine Johnson were all named to the Pro Bowl following the 2023 season. Career record: 18-33.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Mike Tomlin, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 16th head coach in Steelers history when he replaced Bill Cowher on Jan. 22, 2007. Became the youngest coach (36 years, 323 days) in NFL history to win a Super Bowl when the Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals, 27-23, in Super Bowl XLIII on Feb. 1, 2009 (Sean McVay at 36 years, 10 days, established the current mark 11 years later). Tomlin reached the playoffs four times in his first five seasons and he is the only coach in Steelers history to win division titles each of his first two seasons. In his 17 years as head coach, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to seven AFC North titles, most recently in 2020, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs 11 times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). He has led Pittsburgh to a 173-100-2 record in the regular season since becoming the team's head coach in 2007 - the third-best record in the NFL during that time span. His 173-100-2 regular-season record (.634) is the best start in franchise history. Tomlin secured his 17th straight non-losing season with the Steelers' ninth win in 2023, a 30-23 win at Seattle in Week 17, a streak dating back to his first season as the team's head coach in 2007. Tomlin is the only head coach in NFL history to begin a head-coaching tenure with at least 15 consecutive non-losing seasons. He has led the Steelers to a .500-or-better record in each of his 17 seasons as head coach, the third-longest streak of .500-or-better seasons by a head coach in NFL history. Tomlin is one of two active NFL head coaches with over 170 wins and one of four active NFL head coaches to defeat at least 31 current NFL franchises. In 2020, Tomlin's club won its seventh AFC North title. No other head coach has won the AFC North more than five times. In 2008, Tomlin directed the Steelers to a 12-4 record, winning his second consecutive AFC North title. That season culminated with a Super Bowl triumph, making Tomlin one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. In his first season, Tomlin guided the Steelers to a 10-6 record and their first AFC North title since 2004. Tomlin was the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator in 2006 after spending the previous five seasons (2001-05) as defensive backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Tomlin coached one of the top defensive backfields in the NFL for the Buccaneers, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four interceptions, returning two for touchdowns to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title. Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-2000) before going to Tampa Bay. Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at Memphis. Tomlin began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute. Career record: 181-110-2. Background: Was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 touchdown receptions. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2-yards-per-catch average. Graduated in 1994 with a degree in sociology.

Personal: Born in Hampton, Va., on March 15, 1972. He and his wife, Kiya, have two sons, Dino and Mason, and a daughter Harlyn Quinn.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Tom Arth, quarterbacks; born May 11, 1981; Cleveland, Ohio. Quarterback John Carroll 1999-2002. Pro quarterback Indianapolis Colts 2003-05, Scottish Claymores (NFL) 2004, Hamburg Sea Devils (NFL) 2005, Green Bay Packers 2006, Toronto Argonauts (CFL) 2007. Grand Rapids Rampage (AFL), Georgia Force (AFL) 2008. College coach: John Carroll 2010-16, Tennessee-Chattanooga 2017-18, Akron 2019-21. Pro coach: Los Angeles Chargers 2022-23. The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Brian Callahan, Head Coach

Pro Career: Brian Callahan became the 20th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 24, 2024. Enters 15th year as an NFL coach, in addition to two years as a college coach and two years as a high school coach. Prior to joining the Titans, Callahan was the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals from 2019-23. During his time in Cincinnati, he was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years. From 2021 to 2023, the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00). Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage. From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran finish third in passing yards (4,446) in 2017, while posting a then-career-best 99.3 passer rating. Callahan broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010 and served in multiple roles for the franchise through 2015, capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50. Career record: 0-0.

Background: Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking. As a walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008. He spent time at UCLA as a graduate assistant (2006-07) and then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

Personal: Born June 10, 1984, in Champaign, Ill. He and his wife, Allyson, are the parents of son, Ronan, and daughter, Norah. His father is longtime NFL coach Bill Callahan, the current offensive line coach with the Titans.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Jonathan Gannon, Head Coach

Pro Career: Became an NFL head coach for the first time when hired by Arizona on Feb. 14, 2023. Gannon joined Arizona following two seasons (2021-22) as the defensive coordinator with the Philadelphia Eagles. He has 16 years of experience in the NFL with the Cardinals (2023), Eagles (2021-22), Colts (2018-20), Vikings (2014-17), Titans (2012-13), Rams (2009-11) and Falcons (2007). In his first season with Arizona in 2023, Gannon led the NFL's third-youngest team that relied heavily on rookies but was also highly competitive. Despite playing the league's second-toughest schedule with eight games vs. playoff teams, the Cardinals held a lead in 14-of-17 games played. Gannon led the Cardinals to three wins vs. teams that made the postseason in 2023, including two on the East Coast in the month of December (Pittsburgh and Philadelphia). Five teams that qualified for the '23 postseason (Texans, Buccaneers, Rams, Chiefs and Dolphins) did not have as many wins vs. playoff teams during the regular season. His debut season in Arizona saw him help to develop the team's rookie class, which led the NFL in combined starts (64) and combined snaps on offense and defense (4,654) in 2023. The Cardinals were the only team in the NFL to have rookies combine for 2,000-plus snaps on offense and 2,000-plus snaps on defense last season. Gannon also presided over one of the NFL's best rushing attacks in 2023. Arizona ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing yards (2,365) and second in rushing average (5.02) while leading the league with four games of 200-plus rushing yards. The Cardinals' 2,365 rushing yards were the most for the team in a single season since 1978 (2,582). The Eagles qualified for the postseason and boasted a top-10 defense in each of their two seasons (2021-22) under Gannon, ranking second in total defense in 2022 (301.5 ypg) and 10th in the NFL in 2021 (328.8 ypg). From 2021-22, the Eagles defense led the NFL with 99 sacks, ranked third in total defense (315.1 ypg), third in pass defense (200.4 ypg), sixth in tackles for loss (168), tied for fourth in total return TDs (7) and interception-return TDs (4) and tied for 10th in interceptions (29). In 2022 the Eagles featured the NFL's top-ranked pass defense (179.8 ypg) and the league's eighth-ranked scoring defense (20.2 ppg). Philadelphia won the NFC East title and was the No. 1 seed in the NFC that year, advancing to Super Bowl LVII at State Farm Stadium after beating San Francisco in the NFC Championship. The Eagles easily led the NFL with a franchise single-season record 70 sacks during the 2022 regular season, the most by any team in a single season since the 1989 Minnesota Vikings (71). Prior to working with the Eagles, Gannon was the defensive backs/cornerbacks coach with the Indianapolis Colts (2018-20) and the assistant defensive backs/quality control coach with the Minnesota Vikings (2014-17) after working as a defensive assistant with the Tennessee Titans (2012-13). He spent three seasons (2009-11) as a scout with the St. Louis Rams after beginning his NFL coaching career as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2007.

Background: Gannon played collegiately as a safety at Louisville and appeared in nine games as a redshirt freshman in 2002 before suffering a career-ending hip injury in his first career start at Cincinnati. As a true freshman in 2001, he was named the Cardinals' defensive scout team player of the year. Following the injury, he worked as a student assistant at Louisville for three seasons (2003-05) and one season as a graduate assistant (2006) under Bobby Petrino. Gannon attended Saint Ignatius (Cleveland, Ohio) High School where he was an all-state defensive back and a standout in basketball and track & field. As a senior in 2001, he helped lead the basketball team to the school's first state championship and starred in the long jump and 110-meter hurdles, helping Saint Ignatius to its first track & field state championship that same year. Gannon was inducted into the Saint Ignatius Sports Hall of Fame in 2011.

Personal: Born April 4, 1983, in Cleveland, Ohio. Gannon and his wife, Gina, have three children – Rocco, Lola and Angelo.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF*Raheem Morris, Head Coach

Pro Career: Raheem Morris was named the 19th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history on Jan. 25, 2024. He takes over the club after spending the past three seasons (2021-23) as defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. During his tenure with the Rams, Los Angeles made two postseason appearances and captured a title in Super Bowl LVI. Over the past three seasons, Los Angeles' defense has recorded the fourth-best red-zone efficiency rating and the seventh-fewest rushing yards per game in the NFL. His 2023 unit was one of the youngest in the NFL but helped the Rams earn a playoff berth and featured Rams third-round rookie defensive lineman Kobie Turner, a finalist for the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year award. Turner and Byron Young tallied a combined 17 sacks, finishing first and second among all rookies. Turner's nine sacks matched three-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year Aaron Donald's franchise rookie record (nine in 2014), while Young's eight sacks ranked third among rookies in franchise history. In 2022, Morris led a Rams defense that led the NFL in red-zone efficiency (44.4 percent), ranked second in goal-to-go efficiency (53.3 percent), seventh in interceptions (16) and ninth in defensive total rush EPA (42.97). During the 2021 season that culminated in a Super Bowl title, Los Angeles' defense averaged 1.5 takeaways per game and featured three players – Donald, Leonard Floyd and Von Miller – ranked in the top 20 in sacks. Additionally, Morris' unit ranked third in sacks (50) and fifth in tackles for loss (85) during the regular season. In 2021, the Rams defense ranked sixth in the NFL in opponents' rushing yards per game (103.2) and fifth in yards per rush (3.96). Morris' unit held opponents to a 51.8-percent red-zone efficiency rate, which ranked eighth. Morris also led a secondary that ranked fifth in opponent passer rating (83.8) and third in interceptions (19). The secondary finished second in the NFL with 17 opponent passing touchdowns allowed and a 0.89 opponent touchdown-to-interception ratio. Career record: 21-38.

Background: Also served as Falcons defensive coordinator and interim head coach in 2020 after four years (2016-19) as Atlanta's assistant head coach, wide receivers coach and offensive pass game coordinator, and one season (2015) as the team's assistant head coach, defensive backs coach and defensive pass game coordinator. Served as defensive backs coach with the Washington Redskins (2012-14) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2007-08). In between, served three years (2009-11) as Tampa Bay head coach. Prior to 2007, spent 2006 season as defensive coordinator at Kansas State, and four years (2002-05) as the Buccaneers' defensive quality control coach, defensive assistant and assistant defensive backs coach.

Got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Hofstra (1998) before coaching defensive backs at both Cornell (1999) and Hofstra (2000-01).

Personal: Born and raised in Newark, N.J., he graduated from Irvington (N.J.) High School.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Dave Canales, Head Coach

Pro Career: Dave Canales is in his first season as head coach for the Carolina Panthers. Canales comes to Carolina having spent his first 13 seasons in the NFL with the Seattle Seahawks (2010-22) in various roles on the offensive side of the ball, prior to serving as the offensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2023. In his lone season as offensive coordinator with the Buccaneers, quarterback Baker Mayfield set career highs in passing yards (4,044), completion percentage (64.3), touchdowns passes (28) and completions (364). He was one of just two NFL quarterbacks to throw 27-plus touchdowns with 10-or-fewer interceptions on the season. Running back Rachaad White set career highs in rushing yards (990) and ranked third among NFL running backs with 549 receiving yards. His 1,539 scrimmage yards tied for seventh most league-wide in 2023. Wide receiver Mike Evans reached the 1,000-yard mark for a 10th consecutive season and became the first player ever to record 60-plus receptions in each of his first 10 career seasons. He and teammate Chris Godwin were one of three pairs of teammates in 2023 to record at least 75 receptions and 950 receiving yards. Canales joined the Buccaneers after 13 seasons with the Seahawks, where he helped Seattle to 10 playoff appearances, two conference championships and a Super Bowl XLVIII title. Canales originally joined the Seahawks as an offensive quality control coach (2010-12) before being elevated to assistant quarterbacks coach (2013-14) and later wide receivers coach (2015-17), quarterbacks coach (2018-19, 2022) and pass game coordinator (2020-21). As quarterbacks coach in 2022, Canales helped guide Geno Smith to his first career Pro Bowl selection and Comeback Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press and Pro Football Writers of America (PFWA). Smith was also named the NFL's Most Improved Player by the PFWA after leading the NFL with a 69.8 completion percentage and setting career highs in completions (399), passing yards (4,282) and passing touchdowns (30). The Seahawks excelled offensively during Canales' tenure in Seattle, recording 7.61 passing yards per attempt and 4.53 rushing yards per carry over the 13-year run. Seattle was the only offense to rank in the top five in both of those categories during that span. Under Canales' tutelage, quarterback Russell Wilson joined Peyton Manning as the only players in league history with 3,000-or-more passing yards and 20-plus passing touchdowns in each of their first 10 seasons. In addition, while Canales was Seattle's pass game coordinator in 2020, wide receiver Tyler Lockett established a franchise record with 100 receptions, while fellow wide receiver DK Metcalf set a franchise mark with 1,303 receiving yards.

Background: Played wide receiver at Azusa Pacific from 1999-2003. No pro playing experience. College coach: El Camino College 2006-08, Southern California 2009. Pro coach: Seattle Seahawks 2010-22, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2023. Joined Panthers in 2024.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Matt Eberflus, Head Coach

Pro Career: Matt Eberflus was named the 17th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 27, 2022. Eberflus came to Chicago with 30 years of coaching experience, including 13 in the NFL, and completed his fourth season as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts in 2021. Under Eberflus, the Bears finished the 2023 regular season with a 7-10 record. They notched four more wins than the 2022 season, their biggest increase since 2017-18 (7), and tied for their fourth-biggest improvement in wins since 2000. Offensively, the Bears ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards (2,399), rushing attempts (534) and rushing yards per game (141.1). On defense, they finished 2023 ranking among the best in the league in several categories: Interceptions (22, tied for first), total rushing yards allowed (1,468, first), rushing yards allowed per game (86.4, first), rushing touchdowns allowed (8, second), total opponent rushes (388, second), takeaways (28, tied for fifth) and total first downs allowed (307, seventh). While with Indianapolis, the Colts were the only NFL defensive unit to be ranked in the top-10 in scoring, run defense and takeaways in each of his last two seasons, and they finished in the top-10 in the NFL in run defense and takeaways in all four of his years, top-10 in scoring defense in three of the four and were the least-penalized defense in the league in 2019 and 2021. Career record: 10-24.

Background: Before entering the NFL, Eberflus was a college coach for 17 years. He started his career at Toledo, his alma mater, where he spent nine years (1992-2000). After leaving Toledo, Eberflus spent eight seasons at Missouri, holding several roles from 2001-08. While with Mizzou, Eberflus helped guide the Tigers to the Big 12 North Division title in 2007 and 2008, compiling a 22-6 record over that span. As a player, Eberflus was a four-year letterman and three-year starting linebacker at Toledo. He earned first-team All-MAC honors and led his team in tackles as both a junior and senior. Eberflus earned a degree in education in 1993 and was inducted into Toledo's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born May 17, 1970, in Toledo, Ohio, Eberflus and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Grace and Giada.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Mike McCarthy, Head Coach

Pro Career: The Dallas Cowboys named Mike McCarthy the ninth head coach in franchise history on Jan. 8, 2020, and he has led the franchise to three consecutive playoff appearances for the first time since 1991-96. He also won 12 games in each of the last three seasons, the first time Dallas posted 12-plus wins in three straight seasons since 1992-95. Dallas' 36 regular-season victories are the second most in the NFL since 2021, trailing only Kansas City (37). Along with 17 years of head-coaching experience and 13 additional years as an assistant coach in the NFL, McCarthy boasts a 167-102-2 regular-season coaching record following 13 seasons with the Green Bay Packers (2006-18) and four in Dallas (2020-23). His 167 victories as a head coach are the fifth-most wins (18th all-time) among active NFL coaches. His teams have qualified for the postseason 12 times, won six NFC North division titles, two NFC East division crowns, made four NFC Championship Game appearances and took home a Super Bowl XLV championship. During his fourth season with Dallas in 2023, McCarthy led the Cowboys to a 12-5 record and an NFC East title. McCarthy took over play-calling duties in the 2023 offseason, and in his first season as the Cowboys' offensive play-caller, Dallas led the NFL in points per game (29.9). During his time in Green Bay (2006-18), McCarthy was known as a prolific offensive mind — and the primary play-caller. McCarthy's Packers offense finished fourth in the NFL in total offense and third in points per game through his tenure with the club. Behind the arm of Aaron Rodgers, the Packers were third in passing offense in that same span. McCarthy's nine playoff appearances overall are the most by a Packers coach since the NFL postseason began in 1933. With the victory over Dallas in the 2016 playoffs, McCarthy surpassed Vince Lombardi and Mike Holmgren for the most playoff victories in team history (10). Career record: 178-113-2.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Dan Campbell, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the Lions' 28th head coach on Jan. 21, 2021. Campbell enters his fourth season in Detroit after leading the club to 12 wins for only the second time in franchise history in 2023. Under Campbell's leadership, the Lions secured their first division title since 1993 and made their second-ever NFC Championship appearance. In his first three seasons with Detroit, Campbell's team has ranked top 10 in almost every major offensive category while producing nine Pro Bowlers and six All-Pros. Campbell brings 23 years of NFL experience, including 12 years as a coach and 11 as a player. He previously served as the assistant head coach/tight ends coach for the New Orleans Saints, a position he held since 2016.

Background: During the span of his five-year coaching tenure with New Orleans, the club captured four NFC South division titles, ranked first in the NFL in points scored (2,361), touchdowns (277) and net yardage (31,147), and posted the third-most wins (56) in the league. In 2015, Campbell became the Miami Dolphins' interim head coach, taking over a 1-3 team and guiding Miami to a 5-7 finish. Under Campbell, Miami improved eight spots in the NFL's rushing-yards-per-game rankings and saw five Dolphins selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015. Campbell initially joined the Dolphins in 2010 as a coaching intern before overseeing the tight ends for five seasons (2011-15).

Personal: Born April 13, 1976, in Clifton, Texas. He and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody, and a daughter, Piper. He earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural development from Texas A&M.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Matt LaFleur, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 15th head coach in team history on Jan. 8, 2019. Is entering his sixth season as Green Bay's head coach and his 16th season in the NFL. Has led the Packers to 56 regular-season wins, tied for the second most in NFL history by a coach in his first five seasons (George Seifert, 62 from 1989-93). In 2019-21, became the first coach in league history to win 13-plus games in three straight seasons. Has guided the Packers to four playoff appearances in his first five years, tied for the most in the NFC since 2019, including back-to-back appearances in the NFC title game (2019-20) and the top seed in the NFC in 2020 and 2021. Has led Green Bay to a 32-9 regular-season record at home (.780), No. 1 in the NFL since 2019. In 2020, helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL in scoring (509), TDs (66) and giveaways (franchise-record 11). Led Green Bay to a 13-3 record in his first season in '19, the biggest one-year win improvement in team history (plus-seven). Served as an offensive coordinator for two seasons (Los Angeles Rams, 2017; Tennessee Titans, 2018) and coached quarterbacks for two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16) and four seasons with the Washington Redskins (2010-13). Got his start in the NFL coaching ranks as an offensive assistant with the Houston Texans (2008-09). Has been a part of three staffs that have helped their teams lead the NFL in scoring (2016 Falcons, 2017 Rams, 2020 Packers). In Atlanta, tutored QB Matt Ryan, who posted a league-high 117.1 passer rating in 2016 on his way to being named NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press. With Washington in 2012, coached QB Robert Griffin III, who became the first QB in team history to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. Career record: 59-31.

Background: Played QB at Saginaw Valley State (2000-02), where he guided the Cardinals to three straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances and earned second-team All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors in all three seasons. Ranks No. 3 in school history in passing yards (7,699), completions (560) and passing TDs (67). Played in the National Indoor Football League for the Omaha Beef in 2003 and the Billings Outlaws in 2004. Began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at Saginaw Valley State in 2003 before working as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan in 2004-05. Also coached quarterbacks/wide receivers at Northern Michigan in 2006, served as the offensive coordinator at Ashland (Ohio) in 2007 and coached quarterbacks at Notre Dame in 2014.

Personal: Born Nov. 3, 1979, in Mount Pleasant, Mich. He and his wife, BreAnne, have two sons, Luke and Ty. His younger brother, Mike, is the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. Their father, Dennis, coached 22 seasons (1976-97) on the staff at Central Michigan.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Sean McVay, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 23rd full-time head coach in franchise history on Jan. 12, 2017. McVay became the youngest head coach in modern NFL history. During the 2023 season, the Rams finished 10-7 and clinched a Wild Card berth against the Lions after going 7-1 in their final eight games. The Rams finished 5-12 in 2022 after an injury-riddled team forced young players to step up. The stars aligned in 2021 as McVay and the Rams went "all in" to win Super Bowl LVI. He finished the regular season 12-5 and became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. In 2020, McVay and the Rams posted a 10-6 record, McVay's fourth-consecutive winning season, and earned his third playoff berth in his first four seasons. During the 2019 season the Rams posted a 9-7 record, the third straight winning season under McVay. In 2018, his second season as head coach, the Rams won 13 games, tied for the second-most single-season wins in franchise history, and competed in the organization's fourth Super Bowl. In his first season in 2017, the Rams won seven more games than the previous season, went from last in the league in scoring to first, and made their first postseason appearance in 13 years. Prior to joining the Rams, McVay was the offensive coordinator (2014-16), tight ends coach (2011-13) and offensive assistant (2010) in Washington. McVay joined Washington prior to 2010 after an undefeated regular season with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. The Tuskers finished a perfect 6-0 before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game. McVay originally entered the National Football League as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Career record: 77-49.

Background: Played wide receiver at Miami (Ohio). No pro playing experience. His grandfather, John McVay, served in various administrative roles, including director of research development for the New York Giants (1976) and vice president/director of football operations for the San Francisco 49ers (1983-94), as well as serving as general manager one year in San Francisco (1998-99). John McVay oversaw five Super Bowl championship squads and earned induction into the 49ers Hall of Fame in 2013.

Personal: Born Jan. 24, 1986, in Marietta, Ga. Son of Tim and Cindy McVay. Has one brother, Ryan.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Kevin O'Connell, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 10th head coach in Vikings history on Feb. 16, 2022. O'Connell joined the Vikings after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams from 2020-21, including a Super Bowl LVI victory. Has nine seasons of NFL coaching experience, including three seasons as an offensive coordinator for the Washington Redskins (2019) and Los Angeles Rams (2020-21). In his first two seasons at the helm of the Vikings, O'Connell became the fastest head coach in team history to reach 20 wins, needing just 30 games to do so. He navigated the 2023 season with four different starting quarterbacks, the most in franchise history, due to a season-ending injury to QB Kirk Cousins and became the 11th head coach in NFL history to lead a team to three straight victories with three different starting QBs. The Vikings defense improved from 31st overall in 2022 to 16th in 2023 and led the league in forced fumbles. In his first season as head coach in 2022, led the Vikings to 13 wins, the most by any first-year head coach in franchise history, earning the club's first division title since 2017. O'Connell had seven players win Player of the Week awards in 2022, the most by a first-year head coach in franchise history. Seven notched Pro Bowl berths and three earned Associated Press All-Pro honors. O'Connell heavily emphasized his team becoming "situational masters" since becoming the 10th head coach in franchise history, pointing to areas that might not always be prominent on stat sheets, but are crucial to winning games. Minnesota saw immediate improvement in these areas, finishing 11-0 in one-score games during the regular season after going 5-8 in those same situations in 2021. The team also had an NFL-record-tying 10 comeback wins in 2022, including overcoming a 33-point halftime deficit in Week 15 against the Colts, the greatest comeback in NFL history. Prior to joining the Vikings in 2022, O'Connell guided Rams QB Matthew Stafford and WR Cooper Kupp to career years in 2021. Kupp was named 2021 NFL Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and Super Bowl LVI MVP. O'Connell worked in Washington, serving as the quarterbacks coach in 2017-18 and the offensive coordinator in 2019. He coached QB Kirk Cousins in 2017, helping him throw for more than 4,000 yards and 27 touchdowns, and record a career-high 342 rushing yards and a league-leading four game-winning drives. O'Connell worked on special projects with the San Francisco 49ers in 2016. He was also the quarterbacks coach in Cleveland during the 2015 season. Career record: 13-5.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Dennis Allen, Head Coach

Pro career: Dennis Allen was named the 17th head coach in Saints history on Feb. 8, 2022. Now in his 29th year coaching and 23rd in the NFL. Promoted from defensive coordinator, for which he served for six-and-a-half seasons, Allen has been a member of the New Orleans coaching staff for 14 years. In his second season as head coach, the Saints rallied to win four of their last five games, including three consecutive wins over divisional opponents. Under Allen's guidance, the Saints are the only team in the NFL to rank in the top 10 in fewest opponent points per game in each of the last four seasons. Before rejoining the Saints staff in 2015 for his second stint with the team, Allen served as head coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14 and as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos in 2011. Prior to his first stint in New Orleans from 2006-10, Allen was also an assistant in Atlanta from 2002-05. Career record: 24-46.

Background: Earned a bachelor of business administration degree and a master's degree in kinesiology from Texas A&M, where he played safety from 1992-95 and started the final 21 games of his career. Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks in 2002, Allen served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1996-99 and as secondary coach at Tulsa from 2000-01.

Personal: Born Sept. 22, 1972, in Atlanta, Ga., and raised in Hurst, Texas. He and his wife Allison have a daughter, Layla, and a son, Garrison.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Clancy Barone, tight ends; born July 26, 1963; San Andreas, Calif. Offensive lineman Nevada 1983-84, Sacramento State 1985-86. No pro playing experience. College coach: American River College 1987-90, Sacramento State 1991-92, Texas A&M 1993, Eastern Illinois 1994-96, Wyoming 1997-99, Houston 2000-02, Texas State 2003. Pro coach: Atlanta Falcons 2004-06, San Diego Chargers 2007-08, Denver Broncos 2009-16, Minnesota Vikings 2017-18, Chicago Bears 2020-21. Joined Saints in 2023.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Brian Daboll, Head Coach

Career: Daboll was named Giants Head Coach on Jan. 29, 2022. Daboll joined the Bills in 2018 as coordinator under coach Sean McDermott. The previous year, he helped lead the University of Alabama to its 17th national championship as the Crimson Tide's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In 2020, Daboll was voted Associated Press NFL Assistant Coach of the Year after the Bills finished 13-3 and ended the Patriots' streak of 11 consecutive division titles. Daboll has 20 years of NFL coaching experience. He spent 11 seasons with the New England Patriots (2000-06, 2013-16) in a variety of roles and helped the franchise win five Super Bowls (XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX, XLIX and LI). Daboll began his coaching career at age 24 in 2000 — Bill Belichick's first year with the team — as a defensive coaching assistant. He was promoted to wide receivers coach in 2002. Daboll left the Patriots to become the Jets' quarterbacks coach from 2007-08. He has been an offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns (2009-10), Miami Dolphins (2011) and Kansas City Chiefs (2012). Prior to entering the NFL, Daboll spent one year (1997) as a volunteer assistant at the College of William & Mary, where he first met McDermott, before serving two seasons (1998-99) as a graduate assistant for Nick Saban at Michigan State. Career record: 16-19-1.

Background: Played safety at Rochester from 1995-97. No pro playing experience. College coach: William & Mary 1997, Michigan State 1998-99, Alabama 2017. The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Kyle Shanahan, Head Coach

Pro Career: Kyle Shanahan became the 20th head coach in franchise history on Feb. 6, 2017, after spending the prior two seasons as offensive coordinator of the Atlanta Falcons. He has 20 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine seasons as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington Redskins (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09). In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), and four as head coach of the 49ers (2019, 2021-23), Shanahan has directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained. In 2019, Shanahan led the 49ers to Super Bowl LIV in his third season with the team, winning Coach of the Year honors from the Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year from the Committee of 101. Shanahan has since guided the team to consecutive NFC West division titles (2022-23) and three consecutive NFC Championship Game appearances (2021-23). In 2023, Shanahan led the 49ers to a 12-5 record, their eighth NFC Championship victory and an appearance in Super Bowl LVIII. He became the second head coach in NFL history to reach the conference championship game in each of his first four playoff appearances as a head coach. Career record: 72-55.

Background: Wide receiver at Duke 1998-99 and Texas 2001-02. Coached at UCLA (2003), and in the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2004-05), Houston Texans (2006-09), Washington Redskins (2010-13), Cleveland Browns (2014) and Atlanta Falcons (2015-16).

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Mike Macdonald, Head Coach

Pro Career: The Seattle Seahawks named Mike Macdonald the ninth head coach in franchise history on Jan. 31, 2024. Under Macdonald, the Ravens led the NFL in scoring defense (16.5 ppg) and sacks (60), and finished tied for first in takeaways (31), becoming the first team in league history to rank first in all three of those categories. Pro coaching background: Baltimore Ravens (coaching intern 2014, defensive assistant 2015-16, defensive backs 2017, linebackers 2018-20, defensive coordinator 2022-23).

Background: While attending Georgia, Macdonald began his coaching career at Cedar Shoals High School, coaching the linebackers and running backs under head coach Xarvia Smith, for whom he played at Centennial High School in Roswell, Ga. No pro playing experience. College coach: University of Georgia 2010-13, Michigan 2021, where Macdonald's unit posted the nation's No. 8 scoring defense (17.4 ppg).

Personal: Macdonald was a two-sport (football and baseball) athlete at Centennial High, and he and his wife, Stephanie, were married in 2021.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Aden Durde, defensive coordinator; born July 10, 1979; North London, England. No college playing experience. Pro linebacker Scottish Claymores (NFL Europe) 2003-04, Hamburg Sea Devils (NFL Europe) 2005-07, Carolina Panthers 2005, Kansas City Chiefs 2008. Pro coach: Atlanta Falcons 2018-20, Dallas Cowboys 2021-23. Joined Seahawks in 2024.

Ryan Grubb, offensive coordinator; born Aug. 12, 1975; Kingsley, Iowa. Running back/wide receiver Buena Vista 1994-97. No pro playing experience. College coach: South Dakota State 2005-06, Sioux Falls 2007-13, Eastern Michigan 2014-16, Fresno State 2017-21, Washington 2022-23. Pro coach: Joined Seahawks in 2024.

Jay Harbaugh, special teams coordinator; San Diego, Calif. Attended Oregon State. No college or pro playing experience. College coach: Oregon State 2008-11, Michigan 2015-23. Pro coach: Baltimore Ravens 2012-14. Joined Seahawks in 2024.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Todd Bowles, Head Coach

Pro Career: Todd Bowles enters his third season as head coach of the Buccaneers following three seasons as the team's defensive coordinator (2019-21). Bowles has led the Buccaneers to consecutive NFC South titles, becoming the first coach in team history to lead the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances and consecutive division titles in his first two seasons. Led by first-team All-Pro safety Antoine Winfield, Bowles was the play-caller for a defense that finished top 10 in the NFL in points allowed per game (19.1), sacks (48), rushing yards per game (95.3), yards per carry (3.8), red-zone efficiency (42.6 percent), goal-to-go efficiency (58.6 percent) and turnover margin (plus-8). On offense, newly signed quarterback Baker Mayfield put together a Pro Bowl-caliber season with career highs in passing yards (4,044), passing touchdowns (28) and completion percentage (64.3). The signal-caller finished in the NFL's top 10 in passing touchdowns (seventh), passing yards (ninth) and completions (10th). He was one of two players to finish the season with 28-or-more passing touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions, and he became the second player in club history to throw for 4,000 yards, 25-or-more touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions. Named the Pro Football Writers Association Most Improved Player, Mayfield led a Buccaneers offense that saw year-over-year increases in points scored, point differential, turnover margin, passing touchdowns, passer rating, net yards per pass attempt, third-down conversion rate, fourth-down conversion rate and time of possession. Mayfield helped wide receivers Mike Evans and Chris Godwin each produce 1,000-yard seasons for the third consecutive year – the only set of wide receivers in the NFL to do so. On top of leading the league in receiving touchdowns, Evans reached the 1,000-yard mark for the 10th consecutive season – the longest such streak to begin a career and the second-longest streak overall in league history. Additionally, Tristan Wirfs made his third Pro Bowl in his first season as a left tackle after switching from right tackle. During his time as defensive coordinator, Bowles transformed the unit into one of the NFL's most productive, opportunistic defenses. Since Bowles joined the Buccaneers in 2019, Tampa Bay's defense ranks first in fewest rushing yards per game allowed (93.0), fewest rush yards per attempt allowed (3.9), opponent fumble recoveries (59), strip sacks (41) and quarterback hits (535) while ranking second in sacks (235), forced fumbles (82) and tackles for loss (439). Additionally, Tampa Bay has also ranked in the top 10 in goal-to-go efficiency (third), takeaways (fifth), red-zone efficiency (fifth), fewest yards per play allowed (sixth), fewest net passing yards allowed per attempt (eighth), defensive touchdowns (tied, eighth), fewest yards per game allowed (ninth), passes defended (ninth) and lowest third-down conversion rate against (10th). The architect behind a historic defensive performance that catapulted the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl LV victory, Bowles and the Bucs held the explosive Kansas City offense to nine points and without a touchdown for the first time in 54 games with Patrick Mahomes as the starting quarterback. Bowles joined the Buccaneers after four seasons as head coach of the New York Jets (2015-18). Under Bowles, the Jets posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.0 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span, and allowed 44 rushing touchdowns, tied for eighth-fewest in that time. Bowles' defense also allowed conversions on 36.0 percent of third downs, the NFL's fourth-lowest mark. Opposing passers completed 60.6 percent of their attempts against the Jets under Bowles, the third-lowest mark in the NFL. Nine Jets players earned Pro Bowl berths: Darrelle Revis (2015), Muhammad Wilkerson (2015), Chris Ivory (2015), Brandon Marshall (2015), Nick Mangold (2015), Leonard Williams (2016), Jamal Adams (2018), Jason Myers (2018) and Andre Roberts (2018). Prior to serving as Jets head coach, Bowles spent two seasons as defensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals (2013-14), where he won Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the PFWA and AP in 2014. During Bowles' time in Arizona, the Cardinals defense allowed the third-fewest rushing touchdowns (14), fifth-fewest points per game (19.5) and fifth-fewest rushing yards per game (96.6). Bowles' defenses in Arizona also showed a knack for takeaways, recording the fifth-most interceptions (38) and most defensive touchdowns (nine) in the NFL. Bowles saw cornerback Patrick Peterson earn first-team AP All-Pro honors in 2013 and Pro Bowl honors both years (2013-14). Defensive end John Abraham (2013), cornerback Antonio Cromartie (2014) and defensive end Calais Campbell (2014) also earned Pro Bowl selections. Bowles spent one year with the Philadelphia Eagles (2012) as the team's secondary coach, before being named interim defensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season. Before Philadelphia, Bowles was the Dolphins' assistant head coach/secondary coach for four seasons (2008-11). In 2011, he was named interim head coach for the final three games, going 2-1. Bowles also worked as Cowboys defensive backs coach from 2005-07, coaching three players to the Pro Bowl (safety Ken Hamlin, cornerback Terence Newman and safety Roy Williams). His NFL coaching career began in 2000 as the defensive backs coach of the New York Jets prior to four years with the Cleveland Browns, working as the team's nickel package coach (2001-03) and secondary coach (2004). Career record: 44-60.

Background: Bowles got his start as the defensive coordinator for Morehouse College in 1997, followed by a two-year stint as defensive coordinator at Grambling State (1998-99). He played collegiately at Temple, and despite going undrafted in 1986, played eight years in the NFL, with Washington (1986-90 and 1992-93) and San Francisco (1991), starting on the 1987 Washington team that won Super Bowl XXII. Following his retirement as a player, Bowles spent two seasons (1995-96) with the Green Bay Packers playing personnel department.

Personal: Born in Elizabeth, N.J., he and his wife, Taneka, have three sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2024 COACHING STAFF

Dan Quinn, Head Coach

Pro Career: Became the 31st coach in Washington history on Feb. 3, 2024. Quinn joins the Commanders with 21 years of coaching experience, most recently serving as the defensive coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys from 2021-23. In 2021, he was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the Associated Press. From 2021-23, Quinn's unit ranked No. 5 in the NFL in points per game (19.9), No. 7 in net yards allowed per game (327.0), No. 6 in sacks (141) and No. 1 in interceptions (59). Prior to his time in Dallas, Quinn spent six seasons (2015-20) as the head coach of the Atlanta Falcons where he led Atlanta to Super Bowl LI. He finished his career with the Falcons with a 43-42 regular-season record and a 3-2 postseason record. Before his time in Atlanta, Quinn served as the defensive coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks for two seasons (2013-14) and oversaw a defense that helped guide Seattle to consecutive Super Bowl appearances. The Seahawks defense ranked No. 1 in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (270.4), points allowed (15.2) and passing yards allowed (178.8), all while holding offenses to just 91.6 rushing yards per game during Quinn's tenure with the team. Before joining Seattle for his second stint, Quinn coached for the University of Florida (2011-12), the Seattle Seahawks (2009-10), New York Jets (2007-08), Miami Dolphins (2005-06), San Francisco 49ers (2001-04), Hofstra University (1996-2000), VMI (1995) and William & Mary (1994). Career record: 46-44.

Background: Quinn played defensive line at Salisbury for four seasons (1990-93) and was a four-year letterwinner and two-time co-captain. He also lettered in track and field and held the school record in the hammer throw until 2012. Quinn was inducted into the Salisbury Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born Sept. 11, 1970, in Morristown, N.J. In 20024, he and his wife, Stacey, started Quinn's Corps, which helps serve members of the military both at home and abroad.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "*" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

MODIFIED SUDDEN-DEATH OVERTIME

For the 2010 postseason, the NFL installed a modified sudden-death system to determine the winner when the score is tied at the end of regulation. In 2012, the system was expanded to cover all NFL games, including regular-season and preseason games. In 2022, the system was expanded for postseason games only to allow each team the opportunity to possess the ball.

Overtime rules and procedures are different depending on whether the game is played during the regular season or postseason.

Modified sudden death in regular-season games guarantees each team a possession or the opportunity to possess, unless the team that receives the opening kickoff scores a touchdown on its initial possession. In postseason games, each team is guaranteed a possession unless there is a defensive score during the initial possession (touchdown by the defense or a safety).

Key Definitions

Possession: Actual possession of the ball with complete control. The defense gains possession when it catches, intercepts, or recovers a loose ball.

Opportunity to possess: The opportunity to possess occurs only during kicking plays. A kickoff is an opportunity to possess for the receiving team. If the kicking team legally recovers the kick, the receiving team is considered to have had its opportunity. A punt or a field goal that crosses the line of scrimmage and is muffed by the receiving team is considered to be an opportunity to possess for the receivers. Normal touching rules by the kicking team apply.

REGULAR-SEASON PROCEDURES

At the end of regulation time, the referee will immediately toss a coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.

Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, there shall be a maximum of one 10-minute period. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball unless the team that has the ball first scores a touchdown on its initial possession. Play continues in sudden death until a winner is determined, and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal, or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by the referee for a palpably unfair act. If a touchdown is scored, the game is over, and the point-after try is not attempted. Each team shall be entitled to two timeouts, and if there is an excess timeout, the usual rules shall apply. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

If the score is tied at the end of a 10-minute overtime period, the game shall result in a tie.

Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay official.

POSTSEASON PROCEDURES

In postseason, all games tied at the end of regulation are essentially new four-quarter contests unless a winner is determined. Following a three-minute intermission after the end of regulation, play will continue in 15-minute periods until a winner is declared, regardless of how many periods are necessary.

At the end of regulation, the referee will immediately toss a coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.

Both teams must have the opportunity to possess the ball at least once during the extra period, unless the team kicking off to start the first overtime period scores a safety on the receiving team's initial possession. If the kicking team starts the first overtime period with a safety on the receiving team's initial possession, the team that kicked off is the winner. If the team that possesses the ball first does not score on its initial possession, or if the score is tied after each team has had its opportunity to possess the ball, the team scoring next by any method shall be the winner.

If the score is tied at the end of the first 15-minute overtime period, or if the second team's initial possession has not ended, another 15-minute overtime period will begin. Play will continue as it would between the first and second quarters of regulation after the teams change directions.

Every second and fourth overtime period (quarter) will include a clock stoppage for the two-minute warning. If tied after two periods, a possession will end. In that case, the team that lost the overtime coin toss will have the option to kick or receive for the start of the third overtime period (quarter).

If the game remains tied after the second overtime period, there will not be an extended "halftime." Play will continue with a kickoff to begin the third overtime period following a short television break.

Each team has three timeouts per half (defined as two 15-minute overtime quarters) and all general timing provisions apply as during a regular game. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay official.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

The NFL rates its passers for statistical purposes against a fixed performance standard based on statistical achievements of all qualified pro passers since 1960. The current system replaced one that rated passers in relation to their position in a total group based on various criteria. The current system, which was adopted in 1973, removes inequities that existed in the former method and, at the same time, provides a means of comparing passing performances from one season to the next.

It is important to remember that the system is used to rate passers, not quarterbacks. Statistics do not reflect leadership, play-calling, and other intangible factors that go into making a successful professional quarterback. Four categories are used as a basis for compiling a rating:

- Percentage of completions per attempt
- Average yards gained per attempt
- Percentage of touchdown passes per attempt
- Percentage of interceptions per attempt

The average standard is 1.000. The bottom is .000. To earn a 2.000 rating, a passer must perform at exceptional levels, i.e., 70 percent in completions, 10 percent in touchdowns, 1.5 percent in interceptions, and 11 yards average gain per pass attempt. The maximum a passer can receive in any category is 2.375.

For example, to gain a 2.375 in completion percentage, a passer would have to complete 77.5 percent of his passes. The NFL record is 74.44 by Drew Brees (New Orleans, 2018). To earn a 2.375 in percentage of touchdowns, a passer would have to achieve a percentage of 11.9. The record is 13.9 by Sid Luckman (Chicago, 1943). To gain 2.375 in percentage of interceptions, a passer would have to go the entire season without an interception. The 2.375 figure in average yards is 12.50, compared with the NFL record of 11.17 by Tommy O'Connell (Cleveland, 1957).

In order to make the rating more understandable, the point rating is then converted into a scale of 100, with 158.3 being the highest rating a passer can achieve. In cases where statistical performance has been superior, it is possible for a passer to surpass a 100 rating. For example, take Aaron Rodgers' record-setting season in 2011 when he completed 343 of 502 passes for 4,643 yards, 45 touchdowns, and six interceptions. The four calculations would be:

—Percentage of Completions—343 of 502 is 68.33 percent. Subtract 30 from the completion percentage (38.33) and multiply the result by 0.05. The result is a point rating of 1.916.

Note: If the result is less than zero (Comp. Pct. less than 30.0), award zero points. If the results are greater than 2.375 (Comp. Pct. greater than 77.5), award 2.375.

—Average Yards Gained Per Attempt—4,643 yards divided by 502 attempts is 9.25. Subtract 3 yards from yards-per-attempt (6.25) and multiply the result by 0.25. The result is 1.562.

Note: If the result is less than zero (yards per attempt less than 3.0), award zero points. If the result is greater than 2.375 (yards per attempt greater than 12.5), award 2.375 points.

—Percentage of Touchdown Passes—45 touchdowns in 502 attempts is 8.96 percent. Multiply the touchdown percentage by 0.2. The result is 1.793.

Note: If the result is greater than 2.375 (touchdown percentage greater than 11.875), award 2.375.

—Percentage of Interceptions—Six interceptions in 502 attempts is 1.20 percent. Multiply the interception percentage by 0.25 (0.299) and subtract the number from 2.375. The result is 2.076.

Note: If the result is less than zero (interception percentage greater than 9.5), award zero points.

The sum of the four steps is (1.916 + 1.562 + 1.793 + 2.076) 7.348. The sum is then divided by six (1.225) and multiplied by 100. In this case, the result is 122.5. This same formula can be used to determine a passer rating for any player who attempts at least one pass.

The following is a list of the Top 25 single-season passer ratings among qualifying players:

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

From its humble beginnings in 1963 to today, the Pro Football Hall of Fame has grown in both size and stature. Recognized worldwide as America's premier sports Hall of Fame, it is doubtful that even the most optimistic of those who led the drive to bring the Hall of Fame to Canton, Ohio, could have envisioned the successes it would realize.

An exhilarating museum and attraction, the Hall of Fame pays tribute to the talents and triumphs of pro football's greatest stars. Chronicled within the walls of the Hall of Fame are the stories and circumstances of play that bring to life words such as courage, dedication, vision, fair play, integrity and excellence.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame has welcomed over 10 million fans. Each year, visitors travel from each of the 50 states in the United States and from upwards of 70 foreign countries to tour the Hall of Fame.

Today, the Hall of Fame reaches tens of millions of additional football fans each year through broad outreach such as national televised events, an in-depth website, educational and youth programs, social media, traveling exhibits, and special events held around the country.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame works collaboratively with the pro football family - the National Football League, the 32 NFL clubs, and other entities. The cooperative efforts of all of these organizations have contributed greatly to the overall success of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In turn, the Hall strives to serve as the best possible historical showplace and repository for the sport of pro football.

The Hall of Fame is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit educational institution guided by its Mission to "Honor the Greatest of the Game, Preserve its History, Promote its Values & Celebrate Excellence Together."

A 50-member Selection Committee of media representatives, elects new members to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The year-round selection process culminates with the election of no fewer than four or no more than nine new members each year. An affirmative vote of 80 percent is needed for election.

The charter class of 17 enshrinees was elected in 1963 and the honor roll now stands at 378 (183 living as of June 3, 2024) with the election of a seven-man class in 2024.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

1869

Rutgers and Princeton played a college soccer football game, the first ever, Nov. 6. The game used modified London Football Association rules. During the next seven years, rugby gained favor with the major eastern schools over soccer, and modern football began to develop from rugby.

1876

At the Massasoit convention, the first rules for American football were written. Walter Camp, who would become known as the father of American football, first became involved with the game.

1892

In an era in which football was a major attraction of local athletic clubs, an intense competition between two Pittsburgh-area clubs, the Allegheny Athletic Association (AAA) and the Pittsburgh Athletic Club (PAC), led to the making of the first professional football player. Former Yale All-America guard William (Pudge) Heffelfinger was paid $500 by the AAA to play in a game against the PAC, becoming the first person to be paid to play football, Nov. 12. The AAA won the game 4-0 when Heffelfinger picked up a PAC fumble and ran 35 yards for a touchdown.

1893

The Pittsburgh Athletic Club signed one of its players, probably halfback Grant Dibert, to the first known pro football contract, which covered all of the PAC's games for the year.

1895

John Brallier became the first football player to openly turn pro, accepting $10 and expenses to play for the Latrobe YMCA against the Jeannette Athletic Club.

1896

The Allegheny Athletic Association team fielded the first completely professional team for its abbreviated two-game season.

1897

The Latrobe Athletic Association football team went entirely professional, becoming the first team to play a full season with only professionals.

1898

► A touchdown was changed from four points to five.

► Chris O'Brien formed a neighborhood team, which played under the name the Morgan Athletic Club, on the south side of Chicago. The team later became known as the Normals, then the Racine (for a street in Chicago) Cardinals, the Chicago Cardinals, the St. Louis Cardinals, the Phoenix Cardinals, and, in 1994, the Arizona Cardinals. The team remains the oldest continuing operation in pro football.

1900

William C. Temple took over the team payments for the Duquesne Country and Athletic Club, becoming the first known individual club owner.

1902

► Baseball's Philadelphia Athletics, managed by Connie Mack, and the Philadelphia Phillies formed professional football teams, joining the Pittsburgh Stars in the first attempt at a pro football league, named the National Football League. The Athletics won the first night football game ever played, 39-0 over Kanaweola AC at Elmira, New York, Nov. 21.

► All three teams claimed the pro championship for the year, but the league president, Dave Berry, named the Stars the champions. Pitcher Rube Waddell was with the Athletics, and pitcher Christy Mathewson a fullback for Pittsburgh.

► The first World Series of pro football, actually a five-team tournament, was played among a team made up of players from both the Athletics and the Phillies, but simply named New York; the New York Knickerbockers; the Syracuse AC; the Warlow AC; and the Orange (New Jersey) AC at New York's original Madison Square Garden. New York and Syracuse played the first indoor football game before 3,000, Dec. 28. Syracuse, with Glen (Pop) Warner at guard, won 6-0 and went on to win the tournament.

1903

► The Franklin (Pa.) Athletic Club won the second and last World Series of pro football over the Oreos AC of Asbury Park, New Jersey; the Watertown Red and Blacks; and the Orange AC.

► Pro football was popularized in Ohio when the Massillon Tigers, a strong amateur team, hired four Pittsburgh pros to play in the season-ending game against Akron. At the same time, pro football declined in the Pittsburgh area, and the emphasis on the pro game moved west from Pennsylvania to Ohio.

1904

► A field goal was changed from five points to four.

► Ohio had at least seven pro teams, with Massillon winning the Ohio Independent Championship, that is, the pro title. Talk surfaced about forming a state-wide league to end spiraling salaries brought about by constant bidding for players and to write universal rules for the game. The feeble attempt to start the league failed.

► Halfback Charles Follis signed a contract with the Shelby (Ohio) AC, making him the first known black pro football player.

1905

The Canton AC, later to become known as the Bulldogs, became a professional team. Massillon again won the Ohio League championship.

1906

► The forward pass was legalized. The first authenticated pass completion in a pro game came on Oct. 25, when George (Peggy) Parratt of Massillon threw a completion to Dan (Bullet) Riley in a victory over a combined Benwood-Moundsville team.

► Arch-rivals Canton and Massillon, the two best pro teams in America, played twice, with Canton winning the first game, but Massillon winning the second and the Ohio League championship. A betting scandal and the financial disaster wrought upon the two clubs by paying huge salaries caused a temporary decline in interest in pro football in the two cities and, somewhat, throughout Ohio.

1909

A field goal dropped from four points to three.

1912

► A touchdown was increased from five points to six.

► Jack Cusack revived a strong pro team in Canton.

1913

Jim Thorpe, a former football and track star at the Carlisle Indian School (Pa.) and a double gold medal winner at the 1912 Olympics in Stockholm, played for the Pine Village Pros in Indiana.

1915

Massillon again fielded a major team, reviving the old rivalry with Canton. Cusack signed Thorpe to play for Canton for $250 a game.

1916

With Thorpe and former Carlisle teammate Pete Calac starring, Canton went 9-0-1, won the Ohio League championship, and was acclaimed the pro football champion.

1917

Despite an upset by Massillon, Canton again won the Ohio League championship.

1919

► Canton again won the Ohio League championship, despite the team having been turned over from Cusack to Ralph Hay. Thorpe and Calac were joined in the backfield by Joe Guyon.

► Earl (Curly) Lambeau and newspaperman George Calhoun founded the Green Bay Packers on Aug. 11. The local Indian Packing Company sponsored the team for two years while it played an independent schedule.

1920

► Pro football was in a state of confusion due to three major problems: dramatically rising salaries; players continually jumping from one team to another following the highest offer; and the use of college players still enrolled in school. A league in which all the members would follow the same rules seemed the answer. An organizational meeting, at which the Akron Pros, Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, and Dayton Triangles were represented, was held at the Jordan and Hupmobile auto showroom in Canton, Ohio, Aug. 20. This meeting resulted in the formation of the American Professional Football Conference.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

- ▶ A second organizational meeting was held in Canton, Sept. 17. The teams were from four states—Akron, Canton, Cleveland, and Dayton from Ohio; the Hammond Pros and Muncie Flyers from Indiana; the Rochester Jeffersons from New York; and the Rock Island Independents, Decatur Staleys, and Racine Cardinals from Illinois. The name of the league was changed to the American Professional Football Association. Hoping to capitalize on his fame, the members elected Thorpe president; Stanley Cofall of Cleveland was elected vice president. A membership fee of $100 per team was charged to give an appearance of respectability, but no team ever paid it. Scheduling was left up to the teams, and there were wide variations, both in the overall number of games played and in the number played against APFA member teams.
- ▶ Four other teams—the Buffalo All-Americans, Chicago Tigers, Columbus Panhandles, and Detroit Heralds—joined the league sometime during the year. On Sept. 26, the first game featuring an APFA team was played at Rock Island's Douglas Park. A crowd of 800 watched the Independents defeat the St. Paul Ideals 48-0. A week later, Oct. 3, the first game matching two APFA teams was held. At Triangle Park, Dayton defeated Columbus 14-0, with Lou Partlow of Dayton scoring the first touchdown in a game between Association teams. The same day, Rock Island defeated Muncie 45-0.
- ▶ By the beginning of December, most of the teams in the APFA had abandoned their hopes for a championship, and some of them, including the Chicago Tigers and the Detroit Heralds, had finished their seasons, disbanded, and had their franchises canceled by the Association. Four teams—Akron, Buffalo, Canton, and Decatur—still had championship aspirations, but a series of late-season games among them left Akron as the only undefeated team in the Association. At one of these games, Akron sold tackle Bob Nash to Buffalo for $300 and five percent of the gate receipts—the first APFA player deal.

1921

- ▶ At the league meeting in Akron, April 30, the championship of the 1920 season was awarded to the Akron Pros. The APFA was reorganized, with Joe Carr of the Columbus Panhandles named president and Carl Stork of Dayton secretary-treasurer. Carr moved the Association's headquarters to Columbus, drafted a league constitution and by-laws, gave teams territorial rights, restricted player movements, developed membership criteria for the franchises, and issued standings for the first time, so that the APFA would have a clear champion.
- ▶ The Association's membership increased to 22 teams, including the Green Bay Packers who were awarded to J. Emmett Clair of the Acme Packing Co. on Aug. 27. The team cut ties with Acme Packing in October.

- ▶ Thorpe moved from Canton to the Cleveland Indians, but he was hurt early in the season and played very little.
- ▶ A.E. Staley turned the Decatur Staleys over to player-coach George Halas, who moved the team to Cubs Park in Chicago. Staley paid Halas $5,000 to keep the name Staleys for one more year. Halas made halfback Ed (Dutch) Sternaman his partner.
- ▶ Player-coach Fritz Pollard of the Akron Pros became the first black head coach.
- ▶ The Staleys claimed the APFA championship with a 9-1-1 record, as did Buffalo at 9-1-2. Carr ruled in favor of the Staleys, giving Halas his first championship.

1922

- ▶ After admitting the use of players who had college eligibility remaining, J. Emmett Clair withdrew from the APFA, Jan. 28. Six months later, the Packers were readmitted to the renamed NFL. The private Green Bay Football Club, with Curly Lambeau as president, suffered heavy financial losses and folded at the end of the season.
- ▶ The American Professional Football Association changed its name to the National Football League, June 24. The Chicago Staleys became the Chicago Bears.
- ▶ The NFL fielded 18 teams, including the new Oorang Indians of Marion, Ohio, an all-Indian team featuring Thorpe, Joe Guyon, and Pete Calac, and sponsored by the Oorang dog kennels.
- ▶ Canton, led by player-coach Guy Chamberlin and tackles Link Lyman and Wilbur (Pete) Henry, emerged as the league's first true powerhouse, going 10-0-2.

1923

- ▶ For the first time, all of the franchises considered to be part of the NFL fielded teams. Thorpe played his second and final season for the Oorang Indians. Against the Bears, Thorpe fumbled, and Halas picked up the ball and returned it 98 yards for a touchdown, a record that would last until 1972.
- ▶ Canton had its second consecutive undefeated season, going 11-0-1 for the NFL title.

1924

- ▶ The league had 18 franchises, including new ones in Kansas City, Kenosha, and Frankford, a section of Philadelphia. League champion Canton, successful on the field but not at the box office, was purchased by the owner of the Cleveland franchise, who kept the Canton franchise inactive, while using the best players for his Cleveland team, which he renamed the Bulldogs. Cleveland won the title with a 7-1-1 record.

1925

- ▶ Five new franchises were admitted to the NFL—the New York Giants, who were awarded to Tim Mara and Billy Gibson for $500; the Detroit Panthers, featuring Jimmy Conzelmann as owner, coach, and tailback; the Providence Steam Roller; a new Canton Bulldogs team; and the Pottsville Maroons, who had been perhaps the most successful independent pro team. The NFL established its first player limit, at 16 players.

- ▶ Late in the season, the NFL made its greatest coup in gaining national recognition. Shortly after the University of Illinois season ended in November, All-America halfback Harold (Red) Grange signed a contract to play with the Chicago Bears. On Thanksgiving Day, a crowd of 36,000—the largest in pro football history—watched Grange and the Bears play the Chicago Cardinals to a scoreless tie at Wrigley Field. At the beginning of December, the Bears left on a barnstorming tour that saw them play eight games in 12 days, in St. Louis, Philadelphia, New York City, Washington, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, and Chicago. A crowd of 73,000 watched the game against the Giants at the Polo Grounds, helping assure the future of the troubled NFL franchise in New York. The Bears then played nine more games in the South and West, including a game in Los Angeles, in which 75,000 fans watched them defeat the Los Angeles Tigers in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.
  - ▶ Pottsville and the Chicago Cardinals were the top contenders for the league title, with Pottsville winning a late-season meeting 21-7. Pottsville scheduled a game against a team of former Notre Dame players for Shibe Park in Philadelphia. Frankford lodged a protest not only because the game was in Frankford's protected territory, but because it was being played the same day as a Yellow Jackets home game. Carr gave three different notices forbidding Pottsville to play the game, but Pottsville played anyway, Dec. 12. That day, Carr fined the club, suspended it from all rights and privileges (including the right to play for the NFL championship), and re-turned its franchise to the league. The Cardinals, who ended the season with the best record in the league, were named the 1925 champions.
- ### 1926
- ▶ Grange's manager, C.C. Pyle, told the Bears that Grange wouldn't play for them unless he was paid a five-figure salary and given one-third ownership of the team. The Bears refused. Pyle leased Yankee Stadium in New York City, then petitioned for an NFL franchise. After he was refused, he started the first American Football League. It lasted one season and included Grange's New York Yankees and eight other teams. The AFL champion Philadelphia Quakers played a December game against the New York Giants, seventh in the NFL, and the Giants won 31-0. At the end of the season, the AFL folded.
  - ▶ Halas pushed through a rule that prohibited any team from signing a player whose college class had not graduated.
  - ▶ The NFL grew to 22 teams, including the Duluth Eskimos, who signed All-America fullback Ernie Nevers of Stanford, giving the league a gate attraction to rival Grange. The 15-member Eskimos, dubbed the Iron Men of the North, played 29 exhibition and league games, 28 on the road, and Nevers played in all but 29 minutes of them.

- ▶ Frankford edged the Bears for the championship, despite Halas having obtained John (Paddy) Driscoll from the Cardinals. On Dec. 4, the Yellow Jackets scored in the final two minutes to defeat the Bears 7-6 and move ahead of them in the standings.

1927

At a special meeting in Cleveland, April 23, Carr decided to secure the NFL's future by eliminating the financially weaker teams and consolidating the quality players onto a limited number of more successful teams. The new-look NFL dropped to 12 teams, and the center of gravity of the league left the Midwest, where the NFL had started, and began to emerge in the large cities of the East. One of the new teams was Grange's New York Yankees, but Grange suffered a knee injury and the Yankees finished in the middle of the pack. The NFL championship was won by the cross-town rival New York Giants, who posted 10 shutouts in 13 games.

1928

Grange and Nevers both retired from pro football, and Duluth disbanded, as the NFL was reduced to only 10 teams. The Providence Steam Roller of Jimmy Conzelman and Pearce Johnson won the championship, playing in the Cycledrome, a 10,000-seat oval that had been built for bicycle races.

1929

- ▶ Chris O'Brien sold the Chicago Cardinals to David Jones, July 27.
- ▶ The NFL added a fourth official, the field judge, July 28.
- ▶ Grange and Nevers returned to the NFL. Nevers scored six rushing touchdowns and four extra points as the Cardinals beat Grange's Bears 40-6, Nov. 28. The 40 points set a record that remains the NFL's oldest.
- ▶ Providence became the first NFL team to host a game at night under floodlights, against the Cardinals, Nov. 6.
- ▶ The Packers added back Johnny Blood (McNally), tackle Cal Hubbard, and guard Mike Michalske, and won their first NFL championship, edging the Giants, who featured quarterback Benny Friedman.

1930

- ▶ Dayton, the last of the NFL's original franchises, was purchased by William B. Dwyer and John C. Depler, moved to Brooklyn, and renamed the Dodgers. The Portsmouth, Ohio, Spartans entered the league.
- ▶ The Packers edged the Giants for the title, but the most improved team was the Bears. Halas retired as a player and replaced himself as coach of the Bears with Ralph Jones, who refined the T-formation by introducing wide ends and a halfback in motion. Jones also introduced rookie All-America fullback-tackle Bronko Nagurski.
- ▶ The Giants defeated a team of former Notre Dame players coached by Knute Rockne 22-0 before 55,000 at the Polo Grounds, Dec. 14. The proceeds went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering because of the Great Depression, and the easy victory helped give the NFL credibility with the press and the public.

1931

- ▶ The NFL decreased to 10 teams, and halfway through the season the Frankford franchise folded. Carr fined the Bears, Packers, and Portsmouth $1,000 each for using players whose college classes had not graduated.
- ▶ The Packers won an unprecedented third consecutive title, beating out the Spartans, who were led by rookie backs Earl (Dutch) Clark and Glenn Presnell.

1932

- ▶ George Preston Marshall, Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, and M. Dorland Doyle were awarded a franchise for Boston, July 9. Despite the presence of two rookies—halfback Cliff Battles and tackle Glen (Turk) Edwards—the new team, named the Braves, lost money and Marshall was left as the sole owner at the end of the year.
- ▶ NFL membership dropped to eight teams, the lowest in history. Official statistics were kept for the first time. The Bears and the Spartans finished the season in the first-ever tie for first place. After the season finale, the league office arranged for an additional regular-season game to determine the league champion. The game was moved indoors to Chicago Stadium because of bitter cold and heavy snow. The arena allowed only an 80-yard field that came right to the walls. The goal posts were moved from the end lines to the goal lines and, for safety, inbounds lines or hashmarks where the ball would be put in play were drawn 10 yards from the walls that butted against the sidelines. The Bears won 9-0, Dec. 18, scoring the winning touchdown on a two-yard pass from Nagurski to Grange. The Spartans claimed Nagurski's pass was thrown from less than five yards behind the line of scrimmage, violating the existing passing rule, but the play stood.

1933

- ▶ The NFL, which long had followed the rules of college football, made a number of significant changes from the college game for the first time and began to develop rules serving its needs and the style of play it preferred. The innovations from the 1932 championship game—inbounds line or hashmarks and goal posts on the goal lines—were adopted. Also the forward pass was legalized from anywhere behind the line of scrimmage, Feb. 25.
- ▶ Marshall and Halas pushed through a proposal that divided the NFL into two divisions, with the winners to meet in an annual championship game, July 8.
- ▶ Three new franchises joined the league—the Pittsburgh Pirates of Art Rooney, the Philadelphia Eagles of Bert Bell and Lud Wray, and the Cincinnati Reds. The Staten Island Stapletons suspended operations for a year, but never returned to the league.

- ▶ Halas bought out Sternaman, became sole owner of the Bears, and reinstated himself as head coach. Marshall changed the name of the Boston Braves to the Redskins. David Jones sold the Chicago Cardinals to Charles W. Bidwill.
- ▶ In the first NFL Championship Game scheduled before the season, the Western Division champion Bears defeated the Eastern Division champion Giants 23-21 at Wrigley Field, Dec. 17.

1934

- ▶ G.A. (Dick) Richards purchased the Portsmouth Spartans, moved them to Detroit, and renamed them the Lions.
- ▶ Professional football gained new prestige when the Bears were matched against the best college football players in the first Chicago College All-Star Game, Aug. 31. The game ended in a scoreless tie before 79,432 at Soldier Field.
- ▶ The Cincinnati Reds lost their first eight games, then were suspended from the league for defaulting on payments. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks.
- ▶ Rookie Beattie Feathers of the Bears became the NFL's first 1,000-yard rusher, gaining 1,004 on 101 carries. The Thanksgiving Day game between the Bears and the Lions became the first NFL game broadcast nationally, with Graham McNamee the announcer for NBC radio.
- ▶ In the championship game, on an extremely cold and icy day at the Polo Grounds, the Giants trailed the Bears 13-3 in the third quarter before changing to basketball shoes for better footing. The Giants won 30-13 in what has come to be known as the Sneakers Game, Dec. 9.
- ▶ The player waiver rule was adopted, Dec. 10.

1935

- ▶ The NFL adopted Bert Bell's proposal to hold an annual draft of college players, to begin in 1936, with teams selecting in an inverse order of finish, May 19. The inbounds line or hashmarks were moved nearer the center of the field, 15 yards from the sidelines.
- ▶ All-America end Don Hutson of Alabama joined Green Bay. The Lions defeated the Giants 26-7 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 15.

1936

- ▶ There were no franchise transactions for the first year since the formation of the NFL. It also was the first year in which all member teams played the same number of games.
- ▶ The Eagles made University of Chicago halfback and Heisman Trophy winner Jay Berwanger the first player ever selected in the NFL draft, Feb. 8. The Eagles traded his rights to the Bears, but Berwanger never played pro football. The first player selected to actually sign was the number-two pick, Riley Smith of Alabama, who was selected by Boston.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

- ▶ A rival league was formed, and it became the second to call itself the American Football League. The Boston Shamrocks were its champions.
- ▶ Because of poor attendance, Marshall, the owner of the host team, moved the Championship Game from Boston to the Polo Grounds in New York. Green Bay defeated the Redskins 21-6, Dec. 13.

1937

- ▶ Homer Marshman was granted a Cleveland franchise, named the Rams, Feb. 12. Marshall moved the Redskins to Washington, D.C., Feb. 13. The Redskins signed TCU All-America tailback Sammy Baugh, who led them to a 28-21 victory over the Bears in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 12.
- ▶ The Los Angeles Bulldogs had an 8-0 record to win the AFL title, but then the 2-year-old league folded.

1938

- ▶ At the suggestion of Halas, Hugh (Shorty) Ray became a technical advisor on rules and officiating to the NFL. A new rule called for a 15-yard penalty for roughing the passer.
- ▶ Rookie Byron (Whizzer) White of the Pittsburgh Pirates led the NFL in rushing. The Giants defeated the Packers 23-17 for the NFL title, Dec. 11.
- ▶ Marshall, Los Angeles Times sports editor Bill Henry, and promoter Tom Gallery established the Pro Bowl game between the NFL champion and a team of pro all-stars.

1939

- ▶ The New York Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars 13-10 in the first Pro Bowl, at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles, Jan. 15.
- ▶ Carr, NFL president since 1921, died in Columbus, May 20. Carl Storck was named acting president, May 25.
- ▶ An NFL game was televised for the first time when NBC broadcast the Brooklyn Dodgers-Philadelphia Eagles game from Ebbets Field to the approximately 1,000 sets then in New York, Oct. 22.
- ▶ Green Bay defeated New York 27-0 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 10 at Milwaukee. NFL attendance exceeded 1 million in a season for the first time, reaching 1,071,200.

1940

- ▶ A six-team rival league, the third to call itself the American Football League, was formed, and the Columbus Bullies won its championship.
- ▶ Halas' Bears, with additional coaching by Clark Shaughnessy of Stanford, defeated the Redskins 73-0 in the NFL Championship Game, December 8. The game, which was the most decisive victory in NFL history, popularized the Bears' T-formation with a man-in-motion. It was the first championship carried on network radio, broadcast by Red Barber to 120 stations of the Mutual Broadcasting System, which paid $2,500 for the rights.

- ▶ Art Rooney sold the Pittsburgh franchise to Alexis Thompson, Dec. 9, then bought part interest in the Philadelphia Eagles.
- ▶ Bell and Rooney traded the Eagles to Thompson for the Pirates, then re-named their new team the Steelers.

1941

- ▶ Elmer Layden was named the first Commissioner of the NFL, March 1; Storck, the acting president, resigned, April 5. NFL headquarters were moved to Chicago.
- ▶ Homer Marshman sold the Rams to Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr.
- ▶ The league by-laws were revised to provide for playoffs in case there were ties in division races, and sudden-death overtimes in case a playoff game was tied after four quarters. An official NFL Record Manual was published for the first time.
- ▶ Columbus again won the championship of the AFL, but the two-year-old league then folded.
- ▶ The Bears and the Packers finished in a tie for the Western Division championship, setting up the first divisional playoff game in league history. The Bears won 33-14, then defeated the Giants 37-9 for the NFL championship, Dec. 21.

1942

Players departing for service in World War II depleted the rosters of NFL teams. Halas left the Bears in midseason to join the Navy, and Luke Johnsos and Heartley (Hunk) Anderson served as co-coaches as the Bears went 11-0 in the regular season. The Redskins defeated the Bears 14-6 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 13.

1943

- ▶ The Cleveland Rams, with co-owners Reeves and Levy in the service, were granted permission to suspend operations for one season, April 6. Levy transferred his stock in the team to Reeves, April 16.
- ▶ The NFL adopted free substitution, April 7. The league also made the wearing of helmets mandatory and approved a 10-game schedule for all teams.
- ▶ Philadelphia and Pittsburgh were granted permission to merge for one season, June 19. The team, known as Phil-Pitt (and called the Steagles by fans), divided home games between the two cities, and Earle (Greasy) Neale of Philadelphia and Walt Kiesling of Pittsburgh served as co-coaches. The merger automatically dissolved the last day of the season, Dec. 5.
- ▶ Ted Collins was granted a franchise for Boston, to become active in 1944.
- ▶ Sammy Baugh led the league in passing, punting, and interceptions. He led the Redskins to a tie with the Giants for the Eastern Division title, and then to a 28-0 victory in a divisional playoff game. The Bears beat the Redskins 41-21 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 26.

1944

- ▶ Collins, who had wanted a franchise in Yankee Stadium in New York, named his new team in Boston the Yanks. Cleveland resumed operations. The Brooklyn Dodgers changed their name to the Tigers.
- ▶ Coaching from the bench was legalized, April 20.
- ▶ The Cardinals and the Steelers were granted permission to merge for one year under the name Card-Pitt, April 21. Phil Handler of the Cardinals and Walt Kiesling of the Steelers served as co-coaches. The merger automatically dissolved the last day of the season, Dec. 3.
- ▶ In the NFL Championship Game, Green Bay defeated the New York Giants 14-7, Dec. 17.

- ▶ The inbounds lines or hashmarks were moved from 15 yards away from the sidelines to nearer the center of the field—20 yards from the sidelines.
- ▶ Brooklyn and Boston merged into a team that played home games in both cities and was known simply as The Yanks. The team was coached by former Boston head coach Herb Kopf. In December, the Brooklyn franchise withdrew from the NFL to join the new All-America Football Conference; all the players on its active and reserve lists were assigned to The Yanks, who once again became the Boston Yanks.
- ▶ Halas rejoined the Bears late in the season after service with the U.S. Navy. Although Halas took over much of the coaching duties, Anderson and Johnsos remained the coaches of record throughout the season.
- ▶ Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia led the NFL in rushing, kickoff returns, and scoring.
- ▶ After the Japanese surrendered ending World War II, a count showed that the NFL service roster, limited to men who had played in league games, totaled 638, 21 of whom had died in action.
- ▶ Rookie quarterback Bob Waterfield led Cleveland to a 15-14 victory over Washington in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 16.

1946

- ▶ The contract of Commissioner Layden was not renewed, and Bert Bell, co-owner of the Steelers, replaced him, Jan. 11. Bell moved the league headquarters from Chicago to the Philadelphia suburb of Bala-Cynwyd.
- ▶ Free substitution was withdrawn and substitutions were limited to no more than three men at a time. Forward passes were made automatically incomplete upon striking the goal posts, Jan. 11.
- ▶ The NFL took on a truly national appearance for the first time when Reeves was granted permission by the league to move his NFL champion Rams to Los Angeles.
- ▶ Halfback Kenny Washington (March 21) and end Woody Strode (May 7) signed with the Los Angeles Rams to become the first African-Americans to play in the NFL in the modern era. Guard Bill Willis (Aug. 6) and running back Marion Motley (Aug. 9) joined the AAFC with the Cleveland Browns.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

► The rival All-America Football Conference began play with eight teams. The Cleveland Browns, coached by Paul Brown, won the AAF's first championship, defeating the New York Yankees 14-9.

► Bill Dudley of the Steelers led the NFL in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns, and won the league's most valuable player award.

► Backs Frank Filchock and Merle Hapes of the Giants were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Bears. Bell suspended Hapes but allowed Filchock to play; he played well, but Chicago won 24-14, Dec. 15.

1947

► The NFL added a fifth official, the back judge.

► A bonus choice was made for the first time in the NFL draft. One team each year would select the special choice before the first round began. The Chicago Bears won a lottery and the rights to the first choice and drafted back Bob Fenimore of Oklahoma A&M.

► The Cleveland Browns again won the AAF title, defeating the New York Yankees 14-3.

► Charles Bidwill, Sr., owner of the Cardinals, died April 19, but his wife and sons retained ownership of the team. On Dec. 28, the Cardinals won the NFL Championship Game 28-21 over the Philadelphia Eagles, who had beaten Pittsburgh 21-0 in a playoff.

1948

► Plastic helmets were prohibited. A flexible artificial tee was permitted at the kickoff. Officials other than the referee were equipped with whistles, not horns, Jan. 14.

► Fred Mandel sold the Detroit Lions to a syndicate headed by D. Lyle Fife, Jan. 15.

► Halfback Fred Gehrke of the Los Angeles Rams painted horns on the Rams' helmets, the first modern helmet emblems in pro football.

► The Cleveland Browns won their third straight AAF championship, going 14-0 and then defeating the Buffalo Bills 49-7.

► In a blizzard, the Eagles defeated the Cardinals 7-0 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 19.

1949

► Alexis Thompson sold the champion Eagles to a syndicate headed by James P. Clark, Jan. 15. The Boston Yanks became the New York Bulldogs, sharing the Polo Grounds with the Giants.

► Free substitution was adopted for one year, Jan. 20.

► The NFL had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season for the first time—Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia and Tony Canadeo of Green Bay.

► The AAF played its season with a one-division, seven-team format. On Dec. 9, Bell announced a merger agreement in which three AAF franchises—Cleveland, San Francisco, and Baltimore—would join the NFL in 1950. The Browns won their fourth consecutive AAF title, defeating the 49ers 21-7, Dec. 11.

► In a heavy rain, the Eagles defeated the Rams 14-0 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 18.

1950

► Unlimited free substitution was restored, opening the way for the era of two platoons and specialization in pro football, Jan. 20.

► Curly Lambeau, founder of the franchise and Green Bay's head coach since 1921, resigned under fire, Feb. 1.

► The name National Football League was restored after about three months as the National-American Football League. The American and National conferences were created to replace the Eastern and Western divisions, March 3.

► The New York Bulldogs became the Yanks and divided the players of the former AAF Yankees with the Giants. A special allocation draft was held in which the 13 teams drafted the remaining AAF players, with special consideration for Baltimore, which received 15 choices compared to 10 for other teams.

► The Los Angeles Rams became the first NFL team to have all of its games—both home and away—televised. The Washington Redskins followed the Rams in arranging to televise their games; other teams made deals to put selected games on television.

► In the first game of the season, former AAF champion Cleveland defeated NFL champion Philadelphia 35-10. For the first time, deadlocks occurred in both conferences and playoffs were necessary. The Browns defeated the Giants in the American and the Rams defeated the Bears in the National. Cleveland defeated Los Angeles 30-28 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 24.

1951

► The Pro Bowl game, dormant since 1942, was revived under a new format matching the all-stars of each conference at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The American Conference defeated the National Conference 28-27, Jan. 14.

► Abraham Watner returned the Baltimore franchise and its player contracts back to the NFL for $50,000. Baltimore's former players were made available for drafting at the same time as college players, Jan. 18.

► A rule was passed that no tackle, guard, or center would be eligible to catch a forward pass, Jan. 18.

► The Rams reversed their television policy and televised only road games.

► The NFL Championship Game was televised coast-to-coast for the first time, Dec. 23. The DuMont Network paid $75,000 for the rights to the game, in which the Rams defeated the Browns 24-17.

1952

► Ted Collins sold the New York Yanks' franchise back to the NFL, Jan. 19. A new franchise was awarded to a group in Dallas after it purchased the assets of the Yanks, Jan. 24. The new Texans went 1-11, with the owners turning the franchise back to the league in midseason. For the last five games of the season, the commissioner's office operated the Texans as a road team, using Hershey, Pennsylvania, as a home base. At the end of the season the franchise was canceled, the last time an NFL team failed.

► The Pittsburgh Steelers abandoned the Single-Wing for the T-formation, the last pro team to do so.

► The Detroit Lions won their first NFL championship in 17 years, defeating the Browns 17-7 in the title game, Dec. 28.

1953

► A Baltimore group headed by Carroll Rosenbloom was granted a franchise and was awarded the holdings of the defunct Dallas organization, Jan. 23. The team, named the Colts, put together the largest trade in league history, acquiring 10 players from Cleveland in exchange for five.

► The names of the American and National conferences were changed to the Eastern and Western conferences, Jan. 24.

► Jim Thorpe died, March 28.

► Mickey McBride, founder of the Cleveland Browns, sold the franchise to a syndicate headed by Dave R. Jones, June 10.

► The NFL policy of blacking out home games was upheld by Judge Allan K. Grim of the U.S. District Court in Philadelphia, Nov. 12.

► The Lions again defeated the Browns in the NFL Championship Game, winning 17-16, Dec. 27.

1954

► The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing quarterback Eddie LeBaron and defensive end Gene Brito of Washington and defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister of the Giants, among others.

► Fullback Joe Perry of the 49ers became the first player in league history to gain 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

► Cleveland defeated Detroit 56-10 in the NFL Championship Game, December 26.

1955

► The sudden-death overtime rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Rams and Giants at Portland, Oregon, Aug. 28. The Rams won 23-17 three minutes into overtime.

► A rule change declared the ball dead immediately if the ball carrier touched the ground with any part of his body except his hands or feet while in the grasp of an opponent.

► The Baltimore Colts made an 80-cent phone call to Johnny Unitas and signed him as a free agent. Another quarterback, Otto Graham, played his last game as the Browns defeated the Rams 38-14 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 26. Graham had quarterbacked the Browns to 10 championship-game appearances in 10 years.

► NBC replaced DuMont as the network for the title game, paying a rights fee of $100,000.
